

Juanita Folk

Juanita McCullough Folk, 81, of Sebewaing passed away Thursday, May 24, 2012 in Scottsdale, Ariz.

She was born on Feb. 25, 1931, in Dry Prong, Louisiana to Samuel Elvin and Ola Belle Simmons McCullough.

Juanita served in the Women's Army Corp., as a cryptographer during the Korean War. She worked for Oakland County Probate Court until her retirement. She was a former member of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Pontiac.

She enjoyed gardening and flowers especially daisies and black-eyed susans. Juanita was an avid reader and loved all books.

Those left to cherish her memory include her children, Ruth Folk of Los Angeles, CA, Gordon Folk and his wife, Matilde, of Sebewaing, Rebecca Folk of Scottsdale, AZ; honorary daughter and husband, Kathy and Chris Piper of Hartland; brother, Ted McCullough and his wife, Lucille, of Ball, LA; sister, Geneva Carmouche and her husband, Rusty, of Ball, LA; several grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Roland W. Folk; parents, Samuel E. and Ola Belle Simmons McCullough; brothers, S.E. McCullough, Earle McCullough; sisters, Billie Jean Hart, Margie Martin, and Gladys Palmer.

Funeral services will take place at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, June 6, 2012 at the First Church of Worship and Praise in Pontiac. Military services and interment will take place following the service at 1 p.m. at Ottawa Park Cemetery, Clarkston.