

WEW, Inc. inspires me to be a better version of myself. At the 2016 retreat, God renewed some things in me that I let die. When I left the retreat, instead of going home I went to my mother-in-love's home, not knowing that would be the last time we would have with her. She passed away shortly after.

Although, she went to be with the Lord and the pain of her death lingered in my heart, God was in control. During the retreat God asked me if I was ready and told me that He was about to answer some prayers that I've had for many years. My mother-in-love blessed us with a beautiful legacy and an inheritance that will allow us to accomplish some of the dreams that we've been holding on to. The wisdom that I gained at the retreat set me up for what God is now doing in this current season in my life.

I am forever grateful for this organization and how they allow God to use them to reach others. They complete every task with a spirit of excellence and I am so thankful for this kingdom connection in my life.
