The Crow Crowd

“...bad company corrupts good character...” 1 Corinthians 15:33 NLT

One day a farmer grabbed his shot gun to shoot at a flock of pesky crows that were eating his crops. The crows had destroyed just about all of his corn before he could harvest it. Unfortunately, he didn't realize his children's pet parrot, Sam, had escaped from his cage in the house and joined the crow crowd. After firing a few shots, the farmer walked over to the fallen birds and was surprised to find his children's pet parrot badly injured with a broken wing. When the farmer's children saw the injured bird, they asked, “Daddy what did you do, what happened Sam the parrot?” The father simply replied, “Bad company!”

God calls us to be in the world and not of the world and to be salt and light to the world. We must be careful that we don't become so like the world that you can never tell the difference between those who follow Christ and carnal people. As you go about with all your activities of this day, share God's love, joy, peace, patience and compassion with the crowd just make sure you don't become a part of the crowd!

Peace and blessings,
