Treasurer's report:

Dues received by Asbury Park, Marlboro, Howell, Rumson, Matt, Lasky, Burlew, & Pino
Treasurer's report read by Mr. Burlew Bob is also trying to find out the organizations tax ID # for the exempt status. Red Bank's business administrator is asking for W-9 form before paying dues.

Motion to accept by: Matt

Seconded by: Tom

Correspondence: No correspondence—Bob is waiting for mail from Mr. Doolittle.

Old Business: No old business to discuss.

Announcements:

MUNCO meeting at Rutgers this month, March 7th. Minor work changes will be discussed. $20 if non-member at 12 noon (yellow parking lot)

BUILDING SAFETY CONFERENCE coming in May, DCA will have a job fair table for the first time for job advertising & employment placement. Next year will be the 40th anniversary of Building Safety Week and the ICC will be a sponsor.

New Business:

Discussion of ICC license reciprocity took place. There are renewal fees and maintenance fees that apply. Only certain states acknowledge the ICC.

CCO's were brought up and everyone should look at UCC Bulletin 06-1 for guidance from the State.

Tax assessor's are starting to get on board with the Construction Officials due to lost tax revenue for ordinary maintenance permit changes.

June's meeting, John has scheduled Robert Kuserk, P.E. to speak. He is an Engineered Wood Specialist from APA.

John spoke of a good seminar about Farm Buildings. Seminar touched on greenhouses, storage buildings and the like. Hammonton has up to 1000 workers in some of these type buildings. Hoophouses are regulated by the UCC and there are criteria to look out for. There is also an alert memo for guidance on these buildings on DCA's website.

Prefabricated metal above ground pool decks were brought up to see how other's were dealing with footing's, loads, & guardrails. Manufacturer's instructions should be according to a standard.

Good & Welfare: None to report.

NEXT MEETING WILL BE JUNE 5th UNLESS ANYONE WANTS TO HOLD MEETING IN MAY. (will discuss at April meeting)

End Of Meeting: Bob made a motion to adjourn and seconded by Tom. Meeting adjourned at 1:42pm.
