The South Shore Arts Festival will take place on Fathers' Day weekend again this year in Cohasset on the Common on June 16th, 17th and 18th. Members are welcome to submit items for sale. We will have approximately 200 square feet of exhibit space to divide among those who wish to participate. A motion was made and passed that the minimum price of an item for sale will be $15.00. There is a sign-up sheet. See Lenny Langevin, or one of the other club officers.

Tim reminded members that the $40 dues are now overdue and must be paid by April 25th. Anyone not paid will be removed from the email list.

A "Thank You" was given to Wally for hosting the March Hands On in his new shop.

John reported that the club has $1817.45 on balance in the bank. There is an outstanding bill for the new TV monitor and stand to be paid.

Ron announced that there is a new club price list of store items including sales tax available to members.

Len Mandeville said the library has a large selection of DVDs and books available and hopes that more members take advantage of them.

Peter Soltz said that he is still looking for silent auction items for The Home For Little Wanderers. He also said that Sid Katz had surgery and is feeling much better. Get Well Sid !!!

Ken Lindgren said that Terry Martin from Australia will be at the Fuller Craft Museum on April 8th, doing a demo and lecture. <http://fullercraft.org/event/deep-collaboration-demonstration-show-and-lecture-from-terry-martin-zina-manesa-burloiu/> has particulars and more information and the work of Terry Martin and Zina Burloiu is discussed in the current issue of the American Woodturner.

Demo - by Steve Wiseman and Ian Manley

Meeting demonstration was a discussion of finishes by Steve Wiseman

and a demonstration of the Beal Buffing System by Ian Manley

Show and Tell

Andy had a small dyed Cherry bowl with wipe on poly and a large Cherry bowl with a Danish oil finish.

Peter Soltz had a spalted Maple box

Ken had a spalted maple off center turning.

Fred Johnson had a spalted maple bowl, an olive wood weed pot.

Ken also showed how Wally showed him how to make a paper pattern to get a better idea of how it will look.

Daniel had bowl of Plum with a Cherry lid

Tim had a Walnut weed pot with glass insert and an oak bowl made from stair treads, but we missed its picture

An Ambrosia Maple compote by John Sorda

John Sorda's showed an Ambrosia Maple bowl with a tung oil finish; another Maple bowl; and a natural edge Cherry bowl

Martha had 6 seam rippers with oil and wax finish.

Ben Natale small Butternut scoop, box made from gluing 20 pieces of light wood formerly from the foot pedals of an organ. It has a Cherry lid with an Oak knob; and cup 2 1/2" in diameter of white Birch with an exposed branch on the side. Ben hollowed it out using a Forstner bit.
