Sunday Meditation

According to Paul we believers were chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world, adopted as children in Christ, and have been “accepted in the Beloved” (Eph. 1:5-6). Accepted, not rejected as our sins deserve. The King James Version translates Ephesians 1:6: “He made us accepted in the beloved.” It’s wonderful to be accepted. But the translator could have done better, I think. The word “accepted” is too passive, too neutral. I’m glad to be accepted and not rejected. But what Paul actually said about us is much more exciting, more suggestive than that. The Greek word is neither passive nor bland; it’s dynamic, active. The angel used the word when he addressed the virgin Mary in Luke 1:28: He said, “Rejoice highly favored one; the Lord is with you; blessed are you among women.” So you and I aren’t just accepted; we’re highly favored! I like that better. All for Jesus, Richard
