Lighthouse Legacies Quilt Show 2019 October 19 & 20

News from Julie and Lisa:

When making gift items for your friends and family, consider creating one for the boutique. Bins will be available at each meeting for collection of items to sell. Please indicate a suggested price for your item, and indicate if you want it back if not sold.

Also, don't throw your selvage ends away. We are collecting them for future projects. Thanks!

Bowl Cozies are a great gift idea that we could sell in the Boutique next year. Here are a few links to free patterns. Easily made with 10 inch squares and batting.

<https://happyhourstitches.com/2016/12/19/soup-bowl-cozy-pattern/amp/>

<https://craftwarehouse.com/sew-this-soup-bowl-cozy-free-pattern/>

A word of caution: If you are making an item intended to go into a microwave, like a microwavable bowl or cozy, remember to use only 100% cotton and a batting that is approved for microwave use. Do not use anything with a metallic trim, as it may cause arcing or a fire. Batiks are also not advised.

There will be no change in the admission or entry fees...get busy on your projects and share the dates with your friends and families.

The bed turning theme for the show is baby quilts. We will be looking for baby quilts with interesting stories.

Lighthouse Quilt Guild General Meeting Minutes

September 24, 2018 at 7pm

President Pat Henningfeld called the meeting to order.

Announcements: Guests were welcomed.

Program: Patricia Simons from Quilter's Rule (quiltersrule.com) showed us how using acrylic templates during machine quilting can make lovely and intricate designs. Methods discussed were rotate, flip, and twist. Instructions and ideas are on their website. January 12, 2019 she will be having a 'Template Mania' class at Bigsby's Sewing Center in Elm Grove, WI.

Business:

Ginger Wanserski announced October's meeting will be Schoolhouse Workshops. There will be 4 rooms, each with a different topic, and members will rotate amongst the rooms.

Pat Henningfeld announced that there are now 135 Guild members! Which means that surely someone is available to fill the officer positions opening for 2019. These positions include Treasurer, VP of Planning, and Hospitality. Please reach out to Pat if you're interested.

Ginger described the VP of Planning role—the person seeks out speakers and workshops for the following year, then moves to VP of Programming role to see those speakers and workshops implemented.

Christmas Raffle quilt is complete, and raffle tickets are available. Drawing will be at the holiday party in November. The quilt was pieced by Carolyn Hechel and quilted by Kitty Friend.

Quilt Show update: The same entry fee for admission and quilt entry will be charged.

The Racine Journal had the quilt show prominent in a photo array of things to do in Racine County.

The Boutique chairs are asking for donations of items. Big sellers last time were bowl warmers (be sure to use 100% cotton for thread, batting, and fabric. Avoid Batik as the method used in manufacturing has lots of chemicals), and table runners. Anything would be appreciated. See Julie Larsen or Lisa Koenen.

Pat Henningfeld noted that information and pictures from last year's show have been removed from the website

Membership & door prizes: A variety of door prizes were awarded for those whose name was drawn.

Hospitality: Dianna Introduced hospitality committees from August and September. The holiday party will be November 26th at 6pm, at Danny's. It's on 4 Mile Rd., near Charles St. The cost is $23. Please see Dianna to pay if you wish to attend.

Show and Tell: A nice variety of quilts was shown, including items from the workshop held by Mary Fons in August.

Next Meetings: The next Board meeting is October 1, 7pm at Lutheran Church of the Resurrection. The next general Guild meeting is October 29th, 7pm at Lutheran Church of the Resurrection.

The meeting adjourned at 8:52pm.

October Hospitality

Please call Dianna 681-0753 to advise her of your contribution for October.

Modern quilting has existed in many forms for much of the 20th century. It wasn't until the 2000's that quilts with a modern aesthetic began to appear in greater numbers and quilters began to describe themselves as modern.
