Who Needs a Resurrection in Some Area of Life?

— The great news of Easter is that the power that raised Jesus is available to you!

When they laid his body in the tomb, it was dead. That body was covered with the open wounds of a vicious flogging. It bore the bruises of being slapped and beaten. It was dehydrated from bleeding and sweating through an excruciating execution. The wrists and feet had been run through with nails. The side bore the gaping wound from a thrust sword to confirm death had claimed it.

The body was wrapped in cloths, and placed in a tomb that was sealed with a large stone and guarded by elite soldiers.

And then the power of God was displayed!

The dead body rose to life.

The executed Jesus rose in victory.

The stone was rolled away.

But all of these things are just dry, historical facts, with no impact on daily life, unless the life of this Resurrected Savior fills us too!

Where do people need this resurrection power in their lives today? What places in life might they feel dead, hopeless, and powerless?

Paul tells us an amazing thing in Ephesians 1:19-20...

"I pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God's power for us who believe him. This is the same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honor at God's right hand in the heavenly realms."

Where do people need this resurrection power in their lives today?

What places in life might they feel dead, hopeless, and powerless?

There is no escaping that our community is filled with people who need this power of God in their lives. In some area of life, they are hopeless, defeated, frustrated, and struggling. They are trying to resurrect a dead relationship, resurrect a lifeless spirit, resurrect a family life that died long ago. But only in Christ do we find the miraculous resurrection power they need.

This Easter at First Baptist, we are HUNGRY to see the dead come to life. We are LONGING to see the hopeless find eternal hope. We are ON FIRE to see the broken, wounded, and desperate find miraculous healing in Christ.

It won't happen because we gave them good advice.

It won't happen because we taught them some new trick.

It will only happen when we introduce them to the Savior who turns loose into our lives the very same power that raised his dead and broken body to powerful and perfect life!

You have very little time left to invite others to join you for this great day of celebration. Who will you bring with you on Easter Sunday?

Discovering Resurrection Power for Your Life and Your Family

Nothing less than the power that raised Jesus is at work in the lives of those who belong to God! It is the power to restore and protect marriages, to guide children wisely in a twisted world, to heal our broken hearts, the power to live with hope and purpose and confidence in a confusing world.

On Easter Sunday and following, we will celebrate that power, and learn how that same resurrection power can be applied to every area of our lives. Easter is not just an amazing past event. It is the key to living in present day victory!

Senior Adults

The month of April promises warmer weather, spring showers and flowers, and a day trip with our senior adult ministries! This month we are going to Campbell University! We will be joining the students for their chapel services at 10:30 a.m., followed by lunch and a tour of the campus. It will be a great day of fun and fellowship, plus we get to see the school so many of our students from First Baptist have attended! So join us on Tuesday, April 3, at 8:45 a.m. We will return to the church mid to late afternoon. Cost for this trip is $5.00. Please call or see Dee to sign up.

We love to eat! And so much of our fellowship centers around food! Our seniors' ministry is no different! We LOVE having lunch together! Our monthly lunches at Rose Hill Restaurant are so much fun - relaxed chatting with friends over delicious food! What could be better? This month's lunch will be on Thursday, April 26, at 11:30 a.m. dutch treat, order from the menu. Sign up in your Sunday school classes or see/call Dee to add your name to the list! And bring a friend! We would love to meet them and get to know them over lunch. You know there is someone near you who needs the friendship and love of a great group of Christian friends. See you there!

Music Ministry

Looking for a way to lead in worship services? Do you like to sing a variety of music styles? Well, do I have an offer for you!

Our choirs are open for any and all singers, men and women! Our SonShine choir is open for our senior adults. We practice on Tuesday mornings at 10:30 a.m. in the choir room. This choir usually leads in worship once a month. SonShine choir is a wonderful, fun group to be part of and we would love to have you join us! Our Chancel choir is open to all adults and meets on Wednesday evenings at 7:20 p.m. This choir sings a wide variety of music ranging from classical styles to current contemporary arrangements. We try to have a little something for everyone's tastes. This choir leads in worship most Sundays. "But I attend the early service!" you might lament. The choral piece is usually one of the first things in the service, so you could sing with us, then slip out. So come on out! We would love to have you join in the fun with either or both choirs!

Is anyone interested in playing handbells? We have a couple of ladies who are interested in restarting this group, one has even offered to direct! Typically rehearsals would be one evening each week. If you are interested, please call the office and let Dee know.

God is patient. Why? Well, because God is in control and He knows how the story ends. Because of Jesus' sacrifice, we know how the story ends, too. Because of Jesus, WE CAN WAIT. We can trust that God is in control. We can have hope that things will work out in the end. And we can be patient because we know all that God has done.

Patience is a reflection of the character of God.

WEEK 1-Key Question: How do you celebrate Easter? When was the last time you went big and celebrated something? A birthday? Definitely Christmas. But how do we celebrate the reason we can celebrate at all? Jesus is alive! We want kids to figure out some ways they can go big and celebrate Easter with their family and friends!

We start the month with The Bible. No, that wasn't a typo. Think about it, in some ways the entire Bible is a lesson in patience. Not because it takes so long to read from cover to cover, but because often people are seen waiting . . . for God to speak, for the rescuer to arrive. That's why we kick off April with the Easter story and the story of the Bible that introduces us to Jesus—His life, death, and most importantly His resurrection. A fitting way to celebrate that Jesus is alive!

Bottom Line: Jesus is alive! God sent Jesus to rescue us from the consequences of our sin. This week, we want to be sure that every child leaves knowing how much God loves them and made a way for them to have a relationship with Him forever.

WEEK 2-Key Question: When is it hard to have patience? Often kids don't plan on being impatient; they just find themselves in situations where their patience is tried. As we get older though, we're able to understand the sorts of moments where we might find ourselves needing a good dose of patience. We hope that kids start to discover the times they might need patience and figure out what God can help them do about it.

For our first week focused on patience, we look to 1 Samuel 1:6–2:1 where we discover the story of Hannah. She had waited years for a child. Rather than become frustrated and angry toward God, she prays and tells Him all about it. When God answers her prayer, she gives her son back to God. He honored her waiting and blessed her with even more children.

Bottom Line: When you think you can't wait, talk to God about it. It's important for us all to remember that talking to God about waiting will help us stay patient through whatever circumstance we might face. He may not change our circumstance, but He'll give the strength to keep waiting well.

WEEK 3-Key Question: What do you do when it's hard to wait? Having a plan for your impatience is important. Rather than just letting your frustration get to you, you can know the steps you can take to make sure that you don't lose your cool. We want kids to discover how they can make patience a priority.

There's an important patience principle King Solomon wrote in Proverbs 14:29. Anyone who is patient has great understanding. But anyone who gets angry quickly shows how foolish they are (NirV). How we respond to waiting shows others our character. Getting frustrated and angry doesn't make the wait any less; it just makes us look foolish.

Bottom Line: When you think you can't wait, keep your cool. Sometimes when you're waiting, becoming angry and frustrated with others is the first thing that pops into our minds. But when it comes to waiting, often there's very little we can do to make the wait any less. While you're waiting, don't make yourself look foolish by taking it out on the people around you.

WEEK 4-Key Question: What can you think about when it's hard to wait? When we're waiting, we often think about what we don't have, what we're waiting for, how long it's taking . . . anything besides what we should be considering—that we can trust God no matter what. Even in their waiting, we hope that kids can understand how they can think about what's true.

In week four of April, we head to Exodus 32:1–35 where we find the Israelites at the foot of Mount Sinai. Instead of obeying God and waiting for Moses to come down off the mountain, the entire nation of Israel grew impatient. They built a golden calf and began to worship it instead of worshiping God. Their lack of patience had some severe consequences.

Bottom Line: When you think you can't wait, think about what's true. It's easier to wait when you remember all the times God has helped you before. You can trust Him, knowing that He'll help you wait.

WEEK 5-Key Question: What could you miss out on by not waiting? God wants His best for us. Sometimes when we're waiting, we rush to what we can get now instead of what is best. We hope that kids can discover that waiting for God's best is the wisest choice they can make. We don't want kids to miss out on something God has planned for their life because they weren't patient.

We'll finish out the month with one of the best examples of what happens when you're not patient; you lose something of value. In Genesis 25:24–34, we discover the story of Esau sacrificing his birthright for a bowl of stew. Because Esau was impatient, he lost something he could never get back.

Bottom Line: When you think you can't wait, think twice. Don't let your lack of patience cause you to make a decision you'll regret. Think twice about what really matters. Ask God to help you wait patiently for what matters most.

Urgent Needs

Right now, our church has two urgent priorities in our giving. The Stewardship Committee is asking all of us to unite behind these two top priorities with single-minded commitment.

The first of these is, as always, our church's ministry budget. Without the ministries of our church, and without the ongoing resources of study materials, lights, heating and cooling, ministries to children, teenagers, and adults, we really have no reason to exist. Without these, we don't have a church; we only have a museum that will soon be closed. God has called us to life-changing ministry, which is what our budget helps us accomplish.

The second urgent priority is the repair of our steeple. The picture below shows the rotted wood of the steeple. This damage is allowing large amounts of water to flow into our balcony area every time it rains. The building that previous generations have provided for us is being repeatedly damaged by this hole in the roof that the damaged steeple creates.

If this were our home, we would still pay the mortgage, pay the electric bill, water and sewer, buy food for the family, school supplies, pay doctor bills, etc. But beyond these essentials, we would focus on repairing our roof with urgency.

So that is what we are inviting our whole church family to do. Let's make sure the ministries that are our reason for existing are fully funded, and then, in appreciation for those who have gone before us, but even more in commitment to the Lord, let's tackle this repair project.

The estimate we have received is good for a limited time, so let's take care of this need soon to avoid an increase in repair costs!

Fundraiser Meal

BBQ, BBQ, BBQ. Yes please, I love BBQ! Calling all people that LOVE food.... If you don't love food, just skip this part. On Friday, April 6, our church will have a Missions Fundraising BBQ Dinner from 11:00 a.m. until we sell out.

We're in need of volunteers. There are many areas where we could use your help. Preselling plates, packaging plates for delivery, delivering plates, baking cakes, serving, and a clean-up crew are just a few.

We need your help to make this dinner a success for our church. Please consider volunteering just a little bit of your time. Contact Susan Ayers (sayers@smithfield.com) or Gloria Andrews (gloria@andrews-financial.com) for more details or to sign up to help.

Just for Laughs:

Bubba was a rough character, but his church had asked him to serve as an usher in worship. As an usher, he helped pass the offering plates each Sunday during worship.

One Sunday he passed the plate by a woman who was wearing very expensive clothes, diamond jewelry, and who, he noticed earlier, had driven up in a luxury car. But when the plate went by her, she didn't put anything in.

So when the plate came back to Bubba, he made a point of passing it by her again, and making a gesture that she should put something in. She ignored him, and passed the plate back without contributing.

Not to be outdone, Bubba entered the pew in front of the lady and held the plate out right in front of her. This last time she waved him off and whispered, "I'm not going to put anything in."

Bubba responded in a normal voice, "If you're not going to put anything in, then for heaven's sake take something out. After all, we take it up for the benefit of sinners."

OCC Shoe Boxes

OCC stands for Operation Christmas Child -- the annual mission effort that delivers shoeboxes of gifts to children all over the world as a way to communicate God's love.

You can go to the OCC processing center to work with the shoeboxes as they are being sent out in December!

Would you like this opportunity to help make it happen? If so, please contact Maggie or Marie Casteen by May. We would need at least seven people including a van driver.

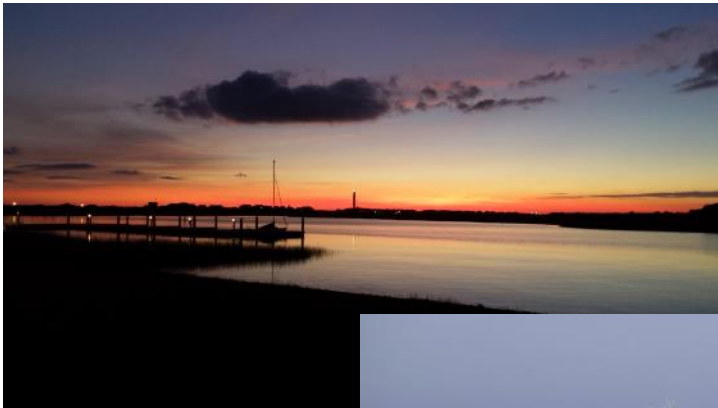

“Listening to God, Listening to One Another”

This Fall, our church will be having a retreat for the adults in our church. The dates are November 9-11, a Friday night through Sunday morning. We will be at Fort Caswell Conference Center on Oak Island.

The focus of the retreat will be “Listening to God, Listening to One Another.”

In this over-busy, noisy world, we will be taking time to get quiet and listen for God’s voice, and then to sit and listen to our fellow believers as they share how God is speaking to them.

Of course, you will also have time to enjoy the beauty, history, and scenery of Fort Caswell.

The meals will be provided by the conference center. Rooms are double occupancy, with two double beds in each room.

We have booked 15 rooms, so we have openings for 30 people on this retreat. The cost is $139 per person for the weekend.

This is going to be a powerful experience, and a time of wonderful renewal and inspiration!

If you know now that you want to attend, sign up now on the sign-up sheet on the office window. If you know who you’d like to room with, indicate that on the sheet, too. To hold your spot, a deposit of $50 is due by May 1, with the balance due on August 1.

Jesus said, “My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.” - John 10:27

Elijah heard God and described it as a “still, small voice.” - 1 Kings 19:12

After God’s challenging words to the people that the prophet Malachi delivered, we read, “Then those who feared the Lord spoke to one another, and the Lord listened and heard them.” - Malachi 3:16

New Sunday Morning Small Groups

New small groups are starting on April 1 for those not currently in a small group.

Wayne Rich and Penny Ross are beginning a group studying “The Sermon on the Mount,” in room 222.

Joe Blanchard is starting a small group for young adults that will meet in the Church Parlor.

We are also planning to re-ignite our small group for students in the Youth room.
