5th Sunday Easter Year C John 13:31-35

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, “Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and God will glorify him at once. My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

“The Good Morrow”

By John Donne

And now good-morrow to our waking souls,
Which watch not one another out of fear;
For love, all love of other sights controls,
And makes one little room an everywhere.
Let sea-discoverers to new worlds have gone,
Let maps to other, worlds on worlds have shown,
Let us possess one world, each hath one, and is one.

My face in thine eye, thine in mine appears,
And true plain hearts do in the faces rest;
Where can we find two better hemispheres,
Without sharp north, without declining west?
Whatever dies, was not mixed equally;
If our two loves be one, or, thou and I
Love so alike, that none do slacken, none can die.

Pastor's Study Desk Notes

Dear St Pius And St Anthony Churches,

5th Sunday Easter Year C John 13:31-35

Sláva Ukrayini! This phrase is used by the brave people of Ukraine, to greet one another as they defend their lives, liberty and justice. It means in English 'Glory to Ukraine'. It represents the free and life-loving spirit of the Ukrainian nation, as it struggles to defend itself from the murderous brutality of the genocidal war criminal-Putin. But what does glory mean? Glory (Glory in Hebrew is 'Kabod' & 'Doxa' in Greek) and its root meaning connotes 'presence, weight and radiance'. In typical English usage, we use the word to signify brilliance, shine, magnificence & splendor. The roots of 'glory' also indicate 'visibility' & 'weight', as in a 'deeply felt presence' of someone. The dimension of 'weight' is reflected in the awe that we experience upon seeing them (as in the Transfiguration of Luke 9:32 "they saw His glory" & 9:34 'were frightened'). Glory is 'spectacular': it is something we see as a marvel. Quite a manifestation, to glory in something is to celebrate its presence, of course offering praise and thanks for it; itself or its effects. So when we glory in God, we are overwhelmed with gratitude at either God's presence felt, or some effect of His work manifest for us. I can think of two examples of the glory of God being celebrated, such as Moses before the burning bush (Exodus 3), or Peter kneeling at the feet of Jesus after the miraculous fish catch (Luke 5:8). So, Glory describes some overwhelming display of grace or goodness. Of course, the highest level of glory would be God Himself Manifest ('Glory to God in the Highest' Luke 2:14), and His Son Jesus as God came to live among us ("we saw His glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son" John 1:14). Glory represents the 'Best', the most 'Illustrative', the most 'perfect expression' of the good (why I am struggling to pinpoint what is exactly 'Glory'!) Yet, also we can look at how we use the word glory to describe things and events in our daily language. We say an event is 'glorious' when it is a shining example of the best, such a wonderfully unexpected and successful move or score in a sporting event, or some history-making decision that embodies our most exalted ideals/virtues or motivates particular social actions. Most often, we hear about 'glory' in regard to childbirth or military adventures. For example, who is beaming with joy more, at the birth of a first born? The squirming radiant red child, or the ebullient shining faces of the joyful parents at the revelation of new life in front of them? Consider how we describe a mother's virtues displayed in her self-sacrificial actions for her children, as she may actually call them 'her pride and joy'-her glory? Or we can think of brave soldiers who refer to 'glory' in war as their courageously sacrificial actions risking their lives to preserve another person's life? So, yes, 'Glory' refers to heroically sacrificial deeds of the highest virtue. So, the Ukrainian people's struggle for the preservation of life and the security of their nation is 'Glory'. May God protect their 'glory' and vindicate their struggle for freedom and for life!

Which brings us to today's short, but loaded gospel! The word 'Glory' is used five times in four verses! Jesus is speaking at the Last Supper, and He is preparing His disciples for the change coming ahead with His Death and Resurrection. I think the repetition of the word glory is about Him letting them know that even though change is coming, God (He) will still be with them yet in a new way. That will be Glory. The recognition, attention, fame that we associate with glory will operate to make known to them His continued presence, specifically in their recall of His Words, their love for one another and their deeds done in His Name. I think that is why he uses the phrase, 'love one another' three times. 1) They prove their knowledge of Him, 2) they will recognize Him in their work, and 3) the world will come to know God Himself, if the disciples continue the sacrificial ministry of Christ toward others. Jesus kicks the whole cycle of glory off, by sharing glory. In John 17:22, He says, "Father, I have given them the glory you gave me." Jesus reveals the dynamism of glory as being similar to love, in that its purpose is to be given, shared for the good of others. So in John 15:8, Jesus taught, "By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples." And the best part is how this Glory of God grows (how the world will come to know God!): through the witness of disciples who show unity, share love and give to others, sacrificing their own selves for Jesus. He says it in John 13:35 "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." And this self-giving love from Jesus working in the disciple, is what moves the soul to perfection in God, as Jesus says in John 17:23 "I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me." I know John can get deep, so it helps to hear that Matthew is on to the same of cycle of God's glory multiplying through the lives of disciples in their loving witness, when he records the teaching of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount, when Jesus summarizes a perfect disciple as one whose "light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father" (Matthew 5:16). Or, the simplest summary possible, I like how the letter of John explains this Glory given us in Jesus: "We love because He first loved us!" (1John 4:19). Peace, Fr Brian

Congratulations to our High School Graduates!
