Section 1. The Board of Directors shall have supervision, control and direction of the affairs of the Association, shall determine its policies or changes therein within the limits of the By-Laws, shall actively ~~prosecute~~ implement its purposes and shall have discretion in the disbursement of its funds. It may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as shall be deemed advisable, and may, in the execution of the powers granted, appoint such agents as it may consider necessary. The Board of Directors shall consist of seven (7) representatives. Only owners of record are eligible to be Directors of the Association .

A Director shall serve a term of two (2) years and no more than three (3) consecutive terms of office. If a Director serves three (3) terms in office, he/she shall wait a period of twelve (12) months before being again eligible for Board Membership.

At all meetings of the Board, a majority of the Directors present either in person or electronically, where all parties can hear and speak to each other, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A Director has the right to one (1) vote on all matters properly placed before the Board.

An elected Director of the Association may only be removed from his/her position in accordance with A.R.S. Section 33-1813, as the same may be amended from time to time. A vacancy shall exist when a Director is absent without valid excuse from his/her post for three (3) consecutive Board meetings in person or electronically, if approved by a majority of Directors present. If a vacancy exists among the Directors from resignation, death or otherwise, a replacement shall be appointed within sixty (60) days by the remaining Directors for the unexpired term of such Director.

Section 2. Notice of all meetings of the Board (regular or special) shall be given to the members at least forty-eight hours in advance of the meeting by newsletter, conspicuous posting or any other reasonable means as determined by the Board, unless emergency circumstances exist which require action by the Board before notice can be given. In the event that emergency circumstances arise, an emergency meeting of the Board may be called to discuss business or take action that cannot be delayed for the forty-eight hours required notice. At any emergency meeting called by the Board, the Board may only act on emergency matters. The minutes of the emergency meeting shall state the reason(s) necessitating the emergency meeting and the minutes shall be read and approved at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board.

Section 3. Each member of the Association is entitled to one (1) ballot per election. In preparing the ballot, candidates' names shall be placed in alphabetical order. At the conclusion of the voting, the candidates with the most votes, up to the number of vacant board positions, shall become the new Directors and begin serving a two-year term. In the event that a tie breaker is necessary to determine the outcome of a board election, the outgoing board, by majority vote, shall break the tie.

Section 4. It is the responsibilities of Directors to elect a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer and to conduct other business that may properly come before the board.

Section 5. The first meeting of the new Board of Directors shall be called by the President of the preceding Board within ten (10) days after the Annual meeting of the homeowners to elect officers and conduct business. Thereafter, regular meetings of the Board may be held at such time and place as shall be determined by a majority of the Directors. If, at any meeting of the Board, there shall be less than a quorum present in person or electronically (where people can hear and speak to one another), no business shall be transacted. If another meeting is scheduled, notice will be given to the membership via written posting at the pool Ramada.

Section 6. Special meetings of the Board shall be called by the President or by the Secretary upon the filing with the President or Secretary of a request by at least three (3) Directors. Notice of the time and place of any such meetings shall be given by the President or Secretary to each Director personally, by mail, email, or electronically, at least three (3) days prior to the date designated for such meeting.

Section 7. The Directors shall arrange to have the financial records of the Association audited annually by a qualified person appointed as an Independent Auditor. All financial and other records of the Association, with the exception of any records that may be withheld from disclosure pursuant to Arizona law, shall be made reasonably available for examination in accordance with A.R.S. Section 33-1805, as the same may be amended from time to time.
