Boerne Awakens.

The Light learns that Boerne is at last taken with the building fever. An Englishman has undertaken the construction of several houses in that charming mountain retreat.

Marriage Licenses.

Henry Jones and Mary Finney.
Manuel Stuardo and Manuela Bergara.
P. W. Webber and Thelma Wright.
Francisco Chavez and Josepha Gardonas.

Encouraging.

Major G. B. Russell has been very sick during the past few days and is now getting much better. He has good reason for recovery as Mrs. Russell has presented him with another son.

Trains Delayed.

A break down was reported on the Sunset and International railroads yesterday by which the trains were much delayed and some stock was damaged, but fortunately no lives were lost.

Death of Mrs. Brackett.

Mrs. Brackett, the sister of Mrs. Major Bash, who made many friends during her recent visit to this city, died at her home in Peoria, Ill., on the 29th ultimo. Her many friends will regret to read this mournful news.

Married.

GIFFORD-PARKER—At Fort Scott, Kansas, on Saturday, June 23, 1923, by Probate Judge O. A. Cheney, at the residence of Mr. M. Izor, brother of the bride, Mr. A. W. Gifford of San Antonio, and Mrs. Maggie Parker, of St. Louis, Mo.

A Double Share of Happiness.

Some men are born great, others have greatness thrust upon them. Mr. Silvio is, the Light presumes, one of the latter class of great men, inasmuch as Mrs. Silvio has given him the prone distinction of being the happy father of twins.

Uncle Sam Retrenching.

It is stated that on account of the inadequacy of the present appropriation to pay clerical services at the military headquarters, in this city, several efficient clerks are shortly to be discharged, although their services cannot well be dispensed with.

Broke His Ankle.

This morning a man named Arnold, was brought to the city with a broken ankle. Yesterday his team ran away in the environs of the city, and to save himself, he jumped from the wagon, thereby sustaining the injury. He is now under the treatment of Dr. R. L. Graves in the county hospital.

At the Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. James French preached yesterday morning in the Presbyterian church to a large congregation. In the evening the Cumberland Presbyterians held services there, and will continue to do so every Sabbath evening until the pastor's return, the church being loaned to them for that purpose and time.

Real Estate Transfers.

Melchora Indo de Flores to Elizabeth and Thomas J. Davine, land in San Antonio, fronting on south side of Dolores street; consideration $200.
Anton Bittermann to Anton Bittermann, Jr., land in Bexar county, on the Rosville creek, 11 miles from San Antonio, part of original survey 152; consideration $300.

A Would-Be Amazon.

A certain widow in this city inspired by the same amazonian spirit as the late Queen Bess wants to be a man for a few hours in order to win the reporters who said she was to be married to a convicted thief. The lady has a perfect right to assume the responsibilities of manhood if she wishes to do so, but if she forgets her womanhood, men may justly be acquainted for the same forgetfulness.

Death of Adolph Vollbrecht.

Adolph Vollbrecht, a young man well known in this city, died yesterday at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Caroline Stobbe, on the corner of Blum and Bowie streets, and will be buried at 4 o'clock this afternoon.
The deceased was a native of Poland and was in the 27th year of his age. For the past 15 years he has resided in this city, and has won the golden opinions of his many friends.

More Boarders at the County Jail.

Four fresh arrivals are announced at the county jail, Sanchez and Langwell, who were arrested by Bader and Van Ripper, as reported elsewhere, El Stevenson, brought in by the Sheriff of Wilson county, arrested for stealing cotton from Zunk's wagon, for which he is indicted with John Shely, and Jose Areano arrested for stealing horses, for which he is indicted with Manro Rodarlo, who was recently arrested.

Robbing the "Safe."

Sommers & Peterson used an old stove as a "safe." Some one found this out and on Saturday when the saloon was closed crept quietly in and relieved the "safe" of its contents, amounting to $200. At present there is no clue to the thief or thieves, but a woman is said to have had a big share in the transaction. Sommers & Peterson have taken a warning by this transaction and have now a fine burglar proof safe, but it looks like locking the stable when the horses are gone.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

Items Gleaned in the Hotel Corridors and Various Other Sources.
Mr. W. Cossin is at the Moser.
Marshal Gosling is expected in the city this evening.
W. P. Coleman, ranchero of Kerr county, is at the Central.
W. Sprague, a merchant of Palestine, is domiciled at the Central.
Mr. R. B. Gosneck, from the City of Mexico, is at the Moser.
Mr. J. Friedlander, a merchant at Fort Stockton and Presidio, is at the Moser.
Mr. and Mrs. Evans, from Galveston, are registered at the Moser on their bridal tour.
Lawrence Jacob, of Live Oak county, one of the wealthiest stockmen in Texas, is a guest at the Central.
William F. Montgomery and W. L. Alford, stockmen and prominent citizens of Lockhart, are at the Central.
G. K. Westcott, interpreter for the New York Texas and Mexican railroad, is in the city and a guest at the Central.
W. L. Winter, Esq., of the former establishment, arrived in the city Saturday evening, from Fort Scott, Kansas.
J. M. Duke, an extensive horse trader, returned yesterday from a successful Northern trip. He has his headquarters at the Central.
Dr. B. H. Kingsley, late of the United States army in the Indian Territory, and brother of Mr. C. M. Kingsley, has arrived in the city and proposes to locate here.
Deputy Sheriff August Krawitz has returned from Guadalupe. He reports the rains there, but says the corn crops are in a very wretched and unprofitable condition.
Mr. H. J. Veltman, formerly a prominent citizen of San Antonio, but now of Brackett, Kinney county, is in the city and a guest of his brother-in-law, Captain McAllister.
W. L. Chapman, a prominent lawyer of Houston, accompanied by his brother, R. H.
Chapman, of Vandavia, Ill., are in the city on a pleasure trip. They are staying at the Central.

Captain Parquand, from Boerne, who has just returned from Austria, where the Polo club made a great success, is a guest at the Moser. He hopes to meet with a like success here.

Mr. J. T. Martin, an old San Antonio boy, and for many years connected with the San Antonio Herald, is in the city on business.
Mr. Martin has just purchased the Brackett News and returned again to his first love.

Mr. Julius Mechna, accompanied by his wife, is in town with a view to settle here and open up a jeweler's business. He is from Buffalo, New York. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mechna will make charming citizens and the Light wishes them all success in their new undertaking.

Recorder's Court.

Texasa Willis was charged in the Recorder's court with being a public prostitute. Texasa said she was not and the jury evidently believed her, because she was acquitted.
H. Parvin got too much alcoholism and lost himself at one of the local hotels. A policeman found him and he had to pay $5 for the city's attention.

There is No Place Like Home.

A letter received in the city states that Conductor Foggett and Mr. R. E. Bond have arrived safely in Hot Springs, Arkansas, and are now taking the benefit of the baths. They complain strongly of the high prices of everything, Foggett writes: "Twenty cents for a saltzbath, and a bad one too." The doctor has cut us off from alcoholic liquors, and I shall be glad to get back to San Antonio to get a good glass of beer and a fine cigar." There is no place like home.

Health of the City.

The City Physician's weekly report shows a total of 22 deaths, and consumption is the only disease that predominates. In five cases no physician was called, and the City Physician calls attention to this criminal neglect. In all cases of sickness a medical man should be summoned, and if the friends are too poor to pay for medical treatment, it will be supplied by the City Physician. There is therefore no excuse for this neglect, which often endangers the life of the patient.

San Antonio No. 11, Lodge, Independent Order of Old Fellows, that are to be installed

"Scheme No. 20."

As will be seen elsewhere one of the Light's partners, Mr. A. W. Gifford, has gone off and tied himself all up into a matrimonial knot, and it is to be presumed is now undergoing the usual experience of a newly pledged benedict.
The marriage took place at Fort Scott, Kansas, June 23, and when he gets through with his business in New York, the happy couple will arrive in San Antonio, some time within the next three weeks. It is the warmest congratulations of the Light, and we mildly predict that it is a scheme that will not likely to be "busted" soon.

Strange Discovery on Bernard Street.

The Rev. W. Meyer, of the Evangelical church, called at the Light office this morning and produced the petrified tooth of an extinct animal, which measured 1 inch wide and 2 1/2 inches long, and stated that the tooth was found this morning in digging a well on the side of the church, on the corner of Bernard and Chestnut streets, in a solid bed of gravel, about 14 feet below the surface. The tooth has originally been about 1/4 inch wide and 3 inches long, and evidently belonged to an animal of mammoth proportions.

San Antonio Stock Abroad.

San Antonians generally and the public at large have always admired the splendid and admirably matched carriage team driven by Mr.
Sam Bennett. They are faultless in carriage and action, and have always attracted attention on the streets. Last week he took them to Galveston, where they created great admiration from the islanders, and unusual consideration by the way they threw the sand in the eyes of all who undertook to pass them in the numerous drives on the beach. They naturally left every one of the flyers in that city, and Mr. Bennett is doubly proud of their achievements.

ing the Normal school session, met this morning at the Synagogue. After a few discussions

GRENET'S AUCTION SALE.

A Number of Ladies are Present and Get Real Bargains.
The Light commissioner visited the auction sale at Grenet's Alamo store this morning and found a large number of persons present eager to get the bargains offered. Among the audience were a large number of ladies who were accommodated with chairs and made as comfortable as possible by the courteous Major Joseph E. Dwyer, executor of the Grenet estate. Major J. A. Hoarek was the auctioneer, and goods went at ridiculously low prices, proving that this was a bona fide sale to close out the departments named in the sale notice that appears elsewhere, and no mean trick to obtain trade. Those who want bona fide bargains should call at once as all the goods are to be sold to the highest bidder.

Lost His Hat.

A prominent citizen, Mr. Sam Hart, and the agent for Jewel's champagne went yesterday to the Professor bar room on Commerce street to test the quality of the Jewel champagne.
They sat for some time and ultimately retired.
After going some distance the prominent citizen discovered that he was minus his hat. The times of the champagne had apparently been a sufficient cover-up, and he had not previously missed it. He returned to the Professor, got his hat and has since been considerably joked over the occurrence.

IF YOU CARE
For the Safety of Your Family, Patent Pole Tip Neck Yoke Clamp

To J. M. Emerson:
Dear Sir—In answer to your inquiry concerning your Patent Pole, Tip and Neck Yoke Clamp, I would say that it has exceeded my expectations, being the safest and most useful Pole attachment I ever saw. Some time since my team ran away and kicked off the two traces, the pole dropped to the ground and the frightened horses ran several hundred yards, breaking the pole, smashing the dash board, tearing off both seats, and otherwise damaging the vehicle, costing me $14 for repairs. Yesterday my team again became frightened and ran away kicking off the outside traces, but there was no damage done, as your neck yoke held the team to the pole, and the driver was enabled to control the frightened horses. I cheerfully recommend your patent to any one who values safety, durability and economy.

Your respectfully,
MAJOR T. T. TRELL.
