

About Us

The Next Picture Show (TNPS) is a non-profit community fine arts center located in the heart of historic downtown Dixon, IL. Established in 2004, the art center occupies an 1854 building that underwent complete restoration. Recreating the 1898 façade look and retaining the original wood floors, tin ceilings and internal structures where possible creates a unique and special backdrop for the art, music and literary events held during the year.

Mission

Our mission is to nurture, develop, educate, foster the arts, and galvanize artists and patrons within the community.

Education

The Lower Level serves as our primary classroom as well as a place for specialty and student exhibitions.

About the Class

This Drawing Class will help you see like an artist to create your own drawings and sketches. It will also lead you through the theory behind how drawing works and introduce art basics such as Picture Plane, Line & Gesture Drawing; Perspective, Value, Composition, Shapes and Negative Shapes. The course also includes exercises to develop and enhance hand and eye coordination. All classes are on a six-week cycle. Need to take a day or maybe a week off for a vacation, birthday or rainy day? No problem. Register for six classes and use them as you wish.
