A note from Rick: Markets at TLA were a little softer this week. Slaughter cows slipped back in price for the first time in several months. The calf market was weaker as well. Both of these markets tend to weaken in the heat of the summer and that's where we are at for sure. The construction project continues to progress and I can't wait until it's complete. We do have a break in our special sale schedule, so we are working on the outside. Inside the office, we are busy getting ready for all of our fall sale catalogs. Consignment forms have been sent and we are super excited for a busy Fall schedule in our new building! Have a great 4th and we'll see ya at TLA!
