Salon Offers Unique Opportunity for Talented Stylist

By Olivia Sellers | NWA Media

White Lotus Salon and Massage is tucked away on five private acres in growing east Fayetteville. Its relaxed atmosphere is the perfect place for an exceptional stylist to join with other experienced professionals to show clients what a luxury salon and day spa can be.

White Lotus is a full-service day spa offering quality services to a growing family clientele. The diverse staff includes hairstylists, massage therapists, an aesthetician and a music therapist specializing in VibroAcoustic Therapy.

The highly trained and seasoned staff provides full-service hair services, massage therapy, hair removal, make-up, facials and body wraps. Other services include unique therapies such as hypnotherapy, EFT and nutritional counseling.

Owner Patty Kulish says she is proud to carry the finest vegan and organic products such as Eminence Organic skin care, Pureology and Kevin Murphy hair care, SpaRitual nail laquers and Caprisco Bella Natural Mineral Make-up. In the lobby, guests can browse and purchase accessories and gifts, which are handmade by local artists.

White Lotus Salon and Massage is a booth-rental salon with lots of perks. The team of professionals will help the new member grow his or her business in a supportive, positive environment. Call Lee or Patty at 582-4806.
