

Hull rot inspections began in 2014.

Please note this is internal crack out damage from harvest samples collected from the ground after shaking. Not all ranches have all varieties and not all varieties are present in every year of our data set.