Jezebel and Guccie, TLA
by Dom Loporto, Staff Journalist

Today’s media is littered with personalities, a cesspool of choices for our younger generation to model their behavior. But of all of them, no one is more of a mystery than “Jezebel.”

Jim Robinson says that Jezebel appears in the Bible as the wicked witch wife of evil King Ahab. She was blamed for nurturing Baal Priests to worship the devil. But is the Jezebel of today supposed to take that kind reputation? Isn’t she just a special sex slave of the Evil Guccione Mafia?

The Guccie Times has not reviewed all of the issues of Penthouse as that would be impossible, but it does not endorse Bob Guccione as having mentioned much about Jezebel. That’s surprising because Bob Guccione never missed a beat when it came to the sex industry. He died at the age of about 95 and Jim said, “I’m glad.”

Jezebel has been around for centuries, but cameras have only been around for a little over a hundred years. Yet before you had cameras you had Pompeii.

So, will Jezebel become Guccie’s bride? This question leads to a further question: who is Guccie? We understand that Robinson is not equipped to be Jezebel’s bridegroom, even though he has made some very courageous moves for that in the past, one of which landed him 2 and a half months in jail. We thought Robinson was looking for a Christian girl, and he’s certainly not going to find her behind the bar at a restaurant or grill. What’s left? Does Jim Guccione have Romantic interests in Jezebel? We asked him saying, “Do you care about Jezebel’s well being?” And he did not answer, only he said, “Jim has to keep his job and maintain his probation sentence.”

Is Mr. Guccione driven with a passion for the Jezebel girl? Or does he have some other motive for his Mafia? One of the detectives we work with said, “The person we understand as Jezebel gets punished the worst, everything from bestiality to sadomasochism.” Why then would Mr. Guccione have a Romantic interest in her?

The Guccie Times is in full support of Jezebel, and it does not blame her for her behavior. Rather, it considers her a subordinate to a Mafia. Jim Guccione does not endorse this criminal organization responsible for her slavery to be the Evil Guccione Mafia. Conversely, he has given us no other explanation for Jezebel. He just says, “She’s a mystery.”
Is the SUNY Poly Nanoscience College Prophesied In the Bible?

by Cal Ferarri, Editor

Anyone who lives upstate and has passed by Fuller Road in Albany, NY on the CDTA/190 has seen the earlier version of the SUNY Poly. It was a beautiful different structure that decorated the side of the road, but we really didn't pay it much mind. Over time, especially over the last few years, the structure expanded into a vast facility of post-modern architecture with a style all its own. We saw the many professionals who were brought up on charges for their bidding, but we never heard anything more about it. What is the truth to the controversy surrounding this structure? Why is it that out of nowhere was there an urgency to build a nanoscience college? Isn’t nanoscience the making of computer chips so small you can barely see them? And what is the reason for the advancement of chip technology?

Robinson has cited scripture in the book of Revelation 13 of the KJV concerning the very erection of this structure. He says it is the technology of the Mark of the Beast. He said the Laodicean age of the church would render men oblivious to the rise of this technology, and men would ignorantly take the Mark of the Beast to conduct commerce, and no trade could be conducted without it. Jim goes into further study in his Soulwinner Newsletter 23.

The Mark of the Beast would be this very computer chip that would regulate a person’s commerce and would be placed in the forehead or the back of the hand. Trade could not be conducted by the individual without it.

Is the state of New York and the country in general aware of this? Are they so in distrust of the KJV Bible and its prophecy and do they have such disbelief that they would simply let it happen? And if they did believe it, what would they do about it? The Guccie Times ponders about what they are going to do with the building. Will it be closed down? Mr. Guccione replied, “The copy won’t close it down. You are talking into the air.”

All social media really can do is make the public aware of the possibility of the SUNY Poly building on Fuller Road in Albany, NY to be a perpetuation of the Mark of the Beast. You have to decide. That is, of course, if it’s not just one of Robinson’s delusions.
I passed a soul winner on St. Mark’s Place recently and he handed me a KJV tract. I wanted to ask him, “Have you been pressured by anyone—like a cop?” But I couldn’t bring myself to ask the question because it was inappropriate. I just told him Jesus loved him and carried on.

Why are wealthy NYC tycoons so concerned with Christians? Is it because they perceive them to be modern AnaBaptists and a threat to their hidden slave kingdoms? Don’t they have more important things to worry about like identity thieves?

The gospel will prosper regardless of the Mafia. Martyrdoms, a thing of the past, is not going to become a thing of the future because we are going to band together as Independent Fundamental Baptists and fight together for our freedom of speech and the denunciation of hate speech legislation. The day that the American dad can not publicly denounce a queer in front of his son is the day that America falls to Sodom. And we need the zealous Christian preaching behind the pulpit and in the streets handing out tracts.

Alleged Lark Street Porn Linked to Greenwich Village

_By Cal Ferrari, Editor_

The Guccie Times has been following this case for some time now. It is alleged, by the comforts afforded by Lark Street in Albany, NY, that porn photographers come up there from NYC betimes to harass the quiet natives of Lark Street and shoot sequences with stars that vacation there from Manhattan. They just can’t get enough in NYC. The porn industry has to degrade the capital of NY, and it does so by establishing a Vintage Era feel to the porn. Mr. Guccione says, “It is a feel of the Guccione Mafia from the 1970’s when Bob was in his hay-day.”

Robinson says that the Lark Street Porn is being sold underground in Greenwich Village, NYC. We’re not sure how Robinson’s investigations led to these conclusions. We understand that Jim has been in his right mind and spending up his fiat from his portrait sales. When we asked him what provoked him to draw this conclusion, he said, “It’s a sensation that I had.”

Robinson has taken a few visits to the big city in hopes of establishing his art business there. He denies any allegations about establishing a “dogrun” in NYC. He says, “I don’t know what’s going through Jim’s mind. The cops will never let me have a gun.”

The Guccie Times feels that the natives of Greenwich Village, like the natives of Lark Street, also enjoy a peace and quiet. They tolerate porn, but they would rather not be harassed by it. Mr. Guccione had a comment about this: “Porn is legal. You’re not going to undo what the copy has done.”

Pornography has become so popular in America today that it has a free reign on the internet. You can get the explicit graphic just by keying in the jargon of what you want to see. Are our kids, who are not ignorant of the handheld device, going to these sites behind our backs? What, if anything, can ever be done about the momentum of the sex industry in our major cities? When we asked Jim what he might be able to do for us, he said, “I’m not concerned with that right now.”
SEFCU Pulls Through
Robinson Completely Compensated

by Cal Ferrari, Editor

In page 3 of the Guccie Times Issue 14, Cal Ferrari gave an overview of Jim’s recent bout with an identity thief that cost him over $10,000 of his money that was not the result of his disability checks but rather a savings from his jobs. Robinson was distraught but he “held things together” until the investigation could be made by Sgt. Detective French of the Troy Police Dept. Sgt. French’s findings satisfied the Fraud Department of SEFCU. Jim’s contact, Sean, at the fraud department was helpful and quick at getting Jim his reimbursement of $13,000 and some change.

We, the staff of the Guccie Times, and Jim Robinson would like to publicly thank Sean and the detective for their efforts to get Jim back his cash. “He says, “I could see myself homeless again and loosing face because I would be perpetually broke.”

What Happened to the DeJohn Properties?

by Dom LoPorto, Staff Reporter

As a young adult, I can remember Lulu’s Café on Lark Street in Albany, NY as a fine little coffeehouse where I could go and meet people. I don’t remember them serving any alcohol, but it still made a fine social atmosphere. Sometime in 2003, a property owner named John DeJohn came around and turned it into a fine pub called DeJohn’s. John proceeded to buy out Justin’s, and he opened the Legends bar on Lark and South Pearl.

Within the past few years, John’s properties closed down. The picture here shows a ghost image of the former DeJohn’s Restaurant and its social atmosphere. What happened? Did John get fed up with the rules and regulations of the Lark Street Bid? Did he want to keep the bars open until 4am but Lark Street compelled him to close at 2? Or was it something else? The only remnant we have of DeJohn now is Savoy where Justin’s used to be.

Mr. Guccione could not be reached for comment on this. Some have said that Robinson’s mistakes had something to do with it, but then who was Robinson to the DeJohn properties? As a matter of fact, Robinson was thrown out of the DeJohn properties because they called him “crazy.” All Robinson ever said about it was, “Yea, but that’s the way Jezebel likes her men.”
