Weekly Newsletter of the Kiwanis Club of Green Bay – Downtown

KIWANIS MEETING OF January 16, 2017

Attendance---13 members, plus Kuether's guest (a boy who lives with them on the Production Farm), plus our speaker. Total of 15 people.

Buffet---sandwiches, soup and orange slices.

Songs---Grand Old Flag, Amazing Grace and the Packer Fight song.

Happy dollar----From Joe to recognize Dal for being named the Volunteer Of The Week in a Press Gazette newspaper article.

Unhappy dollar---From Dal who told us about his fall on the ice in his driveway resulting in a knee injury. Then, when leaving the Emergency Room with Lorna, she fell and broke her hip.

In The News---Fox Cities magazine mentioned our Scennie Festival. Steve was a featured speaker at a St. Norbert seminar, telling how to achieve success in business.

Other news---George O'Hearn is recovering from surgery and hopes to be back at our meetings in February. VP Anne presented Dal with a certificate from Wis. Public Service recognizing his community service.

Speaker---Carolyn introduced Meredith, who told us about her home products business. She showed us frames that she makes and sells at "Tupper Ware" type parties. She donates 25% of her profits to The Production Farm.

Coming programs---See the club calendar on our web site.
