

Common

All things small
And all things greater
We all have
A common denominator

North and south
Of the sunny equator
We all have
A common denominator

We're all born
By the stuff that stars are made of
We all need one thing
And that is love

Do it now
Or save it for later
We all have
A common denominator

COMMON from the album DREAM by It's OK!
