

Krohn, Verna

Verna V. Krohn, 95, life time resident of the Oliver and Chandler Township area, died Monday afternoon, October 13, 2003, at her home following an apparent heart attack. She was born on December 29, 1907 at the home of her parents, the late Ezra and Tillie (Wing) Kreh in Chandler Township. On December 27, 1928, she was united in marriage to Clarence A. Krohn at the Evan parsonage in Pigeon. After they were married, they lived on a farm in Oliver Township until 1946 when they moved across the road to the farm they had in Chandler Township. Mr. Krohn preceded her in death on January 9, 1976. Mrs. Krohn was a farm wife all her married life. She helped on the farm as well as raising her three sons. She loved to cook and bake. She was still canning things from the garden, including a batch of sauerkraut she has brewing in the kitchen, ready for the jar. Surviving are two sons, Warren J. Krohn and his wife, Grace, and Earl J. Krohn, both of Elkton; six grandchildren, John Krohn, Brad Krohn, Linda Herman and her husband, Alan, Jan Stoeckle and her husband, Warren, Kristie Krohn and Jill Gordon and her husband, Brian; seven great-grandchildren, Justin, Joshua, Jordan, McKenzie, Zachary, Laura and Jessica; two brothers, Harold Kreh, of Portage and Robert Kreh and his wife, Joan, of Clio; and two sisters, Beatrice Nichols, of Clio and Inez Vought, of Naples, Florida. Preceding her in death were one son, Gene I. Krohn; two sisters, Iva and Edna; and three brothers, Ervin, Oscar and Walter. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Thursday, October 16, 2003, at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton. The Rev. Reggie Courless, pastor of the Elkton Missionary Church, will officiate with burial in Riverside Cemetery, Elkton. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. today and after 10 a.m. on Thursday at the funeral chapel. Memorials may be given to Huron County Nature Center, the church, or the donor's choice. Friends and family may sign the guest book at www.CFCelkton.com.