Bernal Heights Neighborhood Center ... Meeting Neighborhood Needs

Youth programs in Bernal Heights and the Excelsior bring together public and community programs to build educational and employment opportunities. Almost 400 youth, including foster youth, access these programs and build their leadership in the community.

Community engagement: Bernal Hillwide Garage Sale with Bernal Business Alliance; Fiesta on the Hill being planned for 2017; support for tenant councils at Alemany and Holly Courts housing sites; public safety meetings and projects with block clubs, including Tompkins Stairs lighting encourage collaborative ventures among Bernal groups.

Senior programs respond to neighbors who lack access to healthy food and wellness programs. More than 1,000 multi-lingual neighbors are served.

Two community centers:
515 Cortland Avenue in Bernal Heights and 4468 Mission Street in the Excelsior

Permanent affordability for tenants and Transformative housing programs: BHNC has developed over 500 units of affordable rental housing. With BRIDGE Housing, BHNC is refurbishing two public housing sites: Holly Courts (to be completed May 2017) and Alemany Housing (started November 2016). These projects benefit the residents and their neighbors by creating pleasant and safe affordable rental housing in our neighborhood.

"The BHNC is the greatest asset to this community. I'm very proud to be one of the leaders that work with them. They have helped people not only in and around the neighborhood but they also host important public safety meetings."
 —Bobbi Cochran, Sergeant of Arms for Holly Courts Resident Council

"BHNC has placed caring individuals at Alemany who have developed programs for the youth. My children participate and have fun interacting with the BHNC staff members. I appreciate them."—
 Mo'Raysha Puoua, Alemany resident

"After having a stroke coming here has help me to make friends and have a well balanced meal."—Erlinda Gamboa, senior program participant
