

South Carolina Department of Mental Health (SCDMH) Pilot Project with the South Carolina Firefighter's Association

The Beckman Center for Mental Health Services is a part of a pilot project with the South Carolina Firefighter's Association to provide Behavioral Health Support for Firefighters. The Beckman Center has two (2) trained clinical staff and a psychiatrist to treat firefighters who have experienced trauma in the line of duty.