

1 bargaining unit member shall have the right to enter, and have attached to any such derogatory
2 statement, his/her own comments thereon.

3 10.6 Derogatory information shall not be placed in a bargaining unit member's 4 personnel file until ten (10) working days have elapsed for the purpose of affording the 5 bargaining unit member the opportunity to respond in writing to the derogatory material.

6 10.7 Upon written authorization by the bargaining unit member, a representative of 7 the Association shall be permitted to examine and obtain copies of materials in such bargaining 8 unit member's personnel or on-site file.

9 10.8 The person or persons who draft and/or place material in a bargaining unit 10 member's personnel or on-site file shall sign the material and signify the date on which such 11 material was drafted and placed in the file.

12 10.9 Any material, other than those documents covered by law, may be removed 13 from the unit member's District personnel file upon written request of the employee involved
14 and approval by a joint District and Association committee.

15 10.9.1 Evaluations and all documentation associated with the evaluation shall not be 16 Removed through this process.

17 10.9.2 A written request for document removal may be submitted after documentation has 18 been in the unit member's district personnel file for one (1) year from the date the 19 item is initially issued and each subsequent year if denied.

20 10.9.3 The committee shall consist of the supervisor who wrote the document(s) or 21 current supervisor if the authorizing supervisor is no longer an administrator in the 22 District, the Associated Superintendent of Human Resources or the Certificated
23 Human Resources Director, and two Fontana Teachers Association representatives.

1 (A) The unit member requesting the removal of any document shall be provided 2 fifteen (15) minutes to speak with the committee prior to a decision being 3 made.

4 (B) All members of the committee must be present to make the decision whether 5 the document(s) will be removed. Three (3) of four (4) committee members 6 must agree for any document(s) to be removed.

7 (C) Written notice of the committee's decision will be provided to the petitioning 8 unit member within ten (10) working days.

9 10.10 Every bargaining unit member shall have the right to inspect his/her on-site file, 10 upon written request, provided that the request is made for a time when such person is not 11 actually required to render services to the district. The bargaining unit member shall 12 acknowledge that he/she has read such material by offering his/her signature and date on each 13 copy examined. Site files will be maintained in accordance with legal requirements to support 14 the memory of individual site administrators. Documents, which may be held in site files, will 15 not be retained for or transferred to successor site administrators except that nothing contained 16 in this provision shall prohibit an administrator from retaining in his/her possession any 17 document of which he/she is the maker.
