

VILLAGES OF DEVONSHIRE DESIGN REVIEW CRITERIA

[Revised March 11, 2024]

VILLAGES OF DEVONSHIRE DESIGN REVIEW CRITERIA

The Design Review Criteria of Devonshire addresses changes for which Devonshire homeowners most commonly submit applications to the Design Review Board. They are not intended to be inclusive or exclusive.

The Design Review Board (DRB) shall regulate the exterior design, appearance, and thereon in such a manner as to promote those qualities in the community that bring value to the properties; and to foster the attractiveness and functional unity of the community as a place to live, including a harmonious relationship among structure, landscaping and topography.

All of the below require a design review application form. No work, OTHER THAN EXCEPTIONS NOTED BELOW, will commence until after approval from the Design Review Board.

- All DRB applications, drawing, schematics and photos must be legible and/or clear.
- Inability to read or interpret the improvements, alterations, modifications, or additions may cause a delay in approval.

Please attach/include the following where applicable to the DRB application:

- Written description of work to be done
- Drawing, schematic, photo and/or plan
- Measurements of items requested (when applicable, i.e., Lanai extension)
- Copy of Contractor's License (when applicable)
- Copy of Contractor's Liability Insurance (when applicable)

All applications will be considered within thirty (30) days after receipt of request at the next DRB Committee meeting (see Exception below). Applications must be approved by the Design Review Board. If a homeowner proposes any changes to a prior approved application, a revised DRB application must be submitted indicating it is a revision to a prior application.

EXCEPTION: See change pg. 10 - When homeowners submit a DRB application for something listed in the approved DRB Guidelines, an open DRB Committee Meeting to seek approval is not needed.

1. The DRB Chair receives the DRB application(s) from the homeowner or property manager.
2. The DRB Chair reviews the new DRB application(s) to assure all DRB Guideline Criteria is met. If it is not, the DRB Chair returns the application to the homeowner or property manager, along with referenced DRB Criteria, so that application changes can be made and the application can be resubmitted.
3. After receiving the revised application, the DRB Chair emails it to the DRB Committee members to assure it meets all of the criteria listed in the DRB Guidelines.
4. Once the submitted application is reviewed and meets the DRB Guidelines, the DRB application is signed by the DRB Chair as approved. A copy is emailed to the property manager & homeowner.
5. All approved DRB applications are reported at the nearest scheduled Board meeting.

The property owner acknowledges and agrees that they are solely responsible for determining whether all improvements, alterations, or additional described comply with all applicable codes, ordinances, laws, rules and regulations, including, without limitation, zoning ordinances, and building codes. All authorizations are subject to property owner securing all applicable permits and contractor's license and liability insurance when applicable. Also, the Design Review Board (DRB) shall not be held liable for any injury, damage or loss arising out of the manner or quality of approved construction or modifications.

Failure to get prior application approval for any additions or alterations may result in fines being assessed to property owner. All DRB applications or requests must be submitted in writing to cory@uniquepropertyservices.com or delivered to the DRB Chairman.

Any homeowner who requests to hire a contractor to do work normally maintained by the HOA such as plantings, irrigation, etc., must state such on their DRB application. Should the request be approved by the DRB, the homeowner is responsible for payment to the contractor. The HOA will not reimburse homeowners for any such project. The HOA assumes no maintenance of the project for one year.

Any party aggrieved by a decision of the Design Review Board shall have the right to make a written request to the Board of Directors of the Devonshire Homeowners Association within thirty (30) days of the decision for the review of the decision. The decision of the Board of Directors shall be final.
