Moments Make a Life

What is man, that You should exalt him,
That You should set Your heart on him,
That You should visit him every morning,
And test him every moment?
(Job 7:17,18)

GROWING TO BE A PERSON OF GODLY INTEGRITY IS THE WORK OF A LIFETIME, BUT WHETHER WE GROW IN THIS DIRECTION OR NOT IS DETERMINED BY THE MANY LITTLE DECISIONS WE MAKE MOMENT BY MOMENT. A human life is the accumulation of all its moments, so there is no such thing as an unimportant decision.

Remembering the simple, momentary nature of life ought to be helpful to us if we're serious about seeking God. Daunting tasks lose their power to discourage us when we break them down into each moment's doable deeds. At any particular moment, whatever should be done can be done. Taken individually, single moments are always manageable. But when we take on the burden of doing more than one moment's work at a time, our burden is both impossible and foolish. "The next hour, the next moment, is as much beyond our grasp and as much in God's care, as that a hundred years away . . . The moment which coincides with work to be done is the moment to be minded; the next is nowhere till God has made it" (George MacDonald).

One of the most empowering questions a person can ever ask is this: what is the very best thing I could actually do right now, in this present moment? Forget the next moment or some other moment — what is the main thing that lies before me at this moment? In the end, lives of great, climactic godliness result from a decision to do right by the ordinary moments. Obedience is not impossible. Right now, we must simply embrace whatever we know the Lord would want us to be doing . . . at this moment.

Did our Lord not warn us to be careful about the "little" things? Did He not say, "He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much" (Luke 16:10)? Life is a long journey indeed, but although the steps that take us toward God are many, they should be taken — indeed, can only be taken — one at a time. The key to life is the peaceful, persistent management of the moments.

"Take care of the minutes, and the hours will take care of themselves" (Lord Chesterfield).

Today's Bible Quiz Answer

a) the butler

(Genesis 40: 12- 13, 21)

Gen 40:8-41:1

8 And they said to him, "We each have had a dream, and there is no interpreter of it."

So Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell them to me, please."

9 Then the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "Behold, in my dream a vine was before me, 10 and in the vine were three branches; it was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes. 11 Then Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

12 And Joseph said to him, "This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days. 13 Now within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your place, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand according to the former manner, when you were his butler. 14 But remember me when it is well with you, and please show kindness to me; make mention of me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this house. 15 For indeed I was stolen away from the land of the Hebrews; and also I have done nothing here that they should put me into the dungeon."

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and there were three white baskets on my head. 17 In the uppermost basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

18 So Joseph answered and said, "This is the interpretation of it: The three baskets are three days. 19 Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head from you and hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from you."

20 Now it came to pass on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants; and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants. 21 Then he restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand. 22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. 23 Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.
