

March 31, 2021 SEMINAR REGISTRATION

Two workshops with Melanie Miller offered at the beautiful Quicksilver Canine facility in Julian, NC. Workshops each feature a small number of participants to maximize individual working time, while still allowing for some rest time between working turns.

Each workshop is limited to 7 working spots. Auditing is limited. No more than 10 people inside the building at any time. Full compliance with Quicksilver’s Covid policies, including masks at all times. Registration is open to current online students and 2021 private lesson students until February 19th, after which it is open to the general public. Payment is required to guarantee working spots. Refunds for cancellations minus $50 if spot is filled.

8:00-12:00 Masters/International Handling

This workshop will focus on sequences at the masters level with international flair. Melanie will review the six essential ingredients for a successful handling strategy on any course. Each of the weekend masters/international workshops will feature different sequences. Contacts and weaves may be included with option to skip if preferred. This workshop is suitable for Master level dogs.

1:00-5:00 Young Dog Handling

This workshop will focus on testing handling skills for the young dog, breaking down elements as needed to address any weaknesses. Expect homework plans! :- ) This workshop is suitable for dogs 12 months and above, and only jumps and tunnels will be included.
