

J.D. 'Buck' Barton ¹⁶¹⁷

Services for J.D. "Buck" Barton, 86, former Oil City resident, were held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, March 20 at McGuire Funeral Home in Vivian. Officiating was Rev. Jim Walsh, pastor of First Baptist Church of Waskom, Texas, assisted by Sam Flagart. Interment followed in Lakeview Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Oil City under the direction of McGuire.

Mr. Barton was a retired oil field pumper, a member of the First Baptist Church of Waskom and the Waskom Seniors Club. He was born Sept. 10, 1907 in Marlin, Texas, and had also resided in Shreveport. He had lived in Waskom for 37 years. Mr. Barton died Friday, March 18, 1994 at Willis-Knighton Medical Center in Shreveport after a brief illness.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Hattie Barton.

Survivors include two daughters and sons-in-law, Audrey and Harry Webb and Jay and Donna Estus, all of Arlington, Texas; two sisters, Euralee Woodell of Oil City and Margarite Batts of Wortham, Texas; five grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Larry Estus, Kenny May, Bill Keeton, Frank Fedd, Don Batts and Ted Barton. Honorary pallbearers were Harry B. Webb and Truman Woodell.