A Note from Rick: The only real market change this week was Butcher Cows were considerably stronger. Slaughter cattle were actually slightly lower. Hay prices were high without a lot of loads coming in. Spring is here and we finally have some nice weather. It's going to take some time for things to dry up and be able to get to work. Hopefully, we will see lots of sunshine after a full week of rain. 7 days of no sun can be pretty discouraging, but there's blue skies up ahead and I'm sure everyone is certainly looking forward to it. We did have a great day on Saturday for the Dutch Cross Classic. We had a lot of nice horses that sold well with the sale topper selling for $21,000. The Stallion Presentation and Sale Preview on Friday evening was a fun event that drew a nice crowd and showcased a lot of highlights. We appreciate all those who participated. I would like to wish my Mom, my Mother-In-Law, my wife and all mothers a very Happy Mother's Day! Mothers are the staple of the household and we appreciate all that they do. See you at TLA!
