THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Hi Ladies,

“Everybody’s gone surfing, surfing USA....” Sure did feel like the Beach Boys were with us today. Pat Fluno, with her scallop shells in strategic places and wild surfer dance, would have fit right in with them. Thank you Ronnie, Linda and Brenda for a great laid-back theme and adorable table decorations. The centerpieces made a nice gift for some lucky members. We’re still wondering where all the salt-water taffy went on a certain table.

The new Board members, Chairladies and Interest Group leaders are plugging right along, learning their jobs as quickly as possible. We’ve got a good group working for us in the current year. DeDe happily reported our membership with renewals and new members is at 91.

Even in the midst of frivolity, we had serious business to take care of with the upcoming budget. It was approved unanimously with a motion by Brenda Jones and a second by Liz Payer. The buffet at the Holiday Inn UCF was very tasty indeed. I was almost good with my diet. I passed on the bread but there was no way I was going to pass up that cheesecake. I’m so bad sometimes that Weight Watchers won’t even let me through the front door.

What a great assortment of outfits. There were shorts, Hawaiian shirts, beach shirts, flowered everything and even one bathing suit. A little impromptu dancing was highly entertaining at the end.

Ways and Means has great plans for us this year including musicals, cruises, and maybe a trip to see the Lipizzaner Horses in Sarasota.

Make sure you always check The Chatter. All upcoming events will be posted so you can take advantage of lots of fun activities.

Brenda Jones asked me to pass along a request for knitted baby hats and blankets and standard size pillow cases with bright, children’s designs. These will be donated to the Winnie Palmer Hospital. Even though this is not an official Newcomers project, it’s a good thing to do to help others. So if you’re a knitter, please contact Brenda.

Our lucky monthly winners were: Pat Dedrel (free luncheon), TRH Gloria Irwin ($10 gift card to Macy’s) and Carolyn Williams ($60 from the 50/50 drawing).

See you in July at Carrabba’s . It’s a patriotic-themed luncheon, so wear your best red, white and blue.

Remember to wear red, white and blue at the July luncheon!
