– INGREDIENTS –

- For the Fish:
- 2 tbsp extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 pound wild caught fish (striped bass, hake, haddock, cod, etc.)
- 2 teaspoons freshly chopped thyme
- 1 teaspoon sea salt
- 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 2 teaspoons paprika
- For the Squash:
- 1 onion, thinly sliced
- 3 cups butternut squash, peeled, seeded, and cut into 1-inch cubes
- 1 teaspoon apple cider vinegar

Step 1:

Preheat oven to 350°F. Generously coat the fish with the olive oil. Combine the thyme, salt, pepper, and paprika, and then rub generously over the fish. Place the fish in a single layer in a baking dish. Place dish on middle rack in the oven; and bake until cooked through, about 8-10 minutes.

Step 2:

In a large pot, melt the coconut oil, then sauté the onion just until soft, about 2-3 minutes. Add the carrots and squash plus ½ cup water. Steam the squash and carrots for 10-12 minutes or until tender. Place the steamed vegetables in a food processor and pulse to break down, then add the coconut butter and apple cider vinegar. Then puree until the consistency of mashed potatoes.

Step 3: Serve the fish over a good sized portion of the squash puree.
