

Staged Reading of

directed by Merry LaRue

presented by The Oldwick Community Players

The Oldwick Community Players will be presenting a staged reading of "Belles", a play by Mark Dunn. Told in "two acts and forty-five phone calls, "Belles" visits six southern sisters, who, over the course of an autumn weekend, seek to bridge the physical and emotional distance between them via the telephone, and in the process come to terms with their shattered family history. "Belles" was first presented on January 29, 1988, as winner of the Margo Jones playwriting award competition. It entered the theatre canon as one of the most delightful and endearing plays about women and the bonds of family and continues to enjoy popularity to this day.
