Queen of All Saints International Outreach

In 2011 civil war erupted in Syria that forced millions of its citizens to flee their homes in search of safety. By 2014, as the war continued its devastation, the world had to deal with the largest refugee crises in its recorded history. Overwhelmed relief organizations called on world governments to give the growing number of refugees a safe haven. The Canadian government heeded the call, and asked its citizens to help. After attending a public information session in Moncton, a few Queen of All Saints parishioners felt that this was a way for our parish to fulfill their baptismal call "to be Christ for one another" and committed to sponsoring a Syrian family in need. Within months funds were raised, household necessities were collected and volunteers had committed to help the family ease into a new life in Moncton. They welcomed this family in January 2016. Their efforts to raise funds and household sundries was so successful, they realized they had enough to sponsor another family. This new family arrived in November 2018.

Since that initial effort the International Outreach Committee of Queen of All Saints was formed. It has continued to help refugees from Syria, Iran, Democratic Republic of Congo, Eritrea, Sudan and most recently Afghanistan, by screening applications, helping families collect and submit required official documents, collecting household supplies, raising funds, and helping newly arrived families adjust to the culture and climate of NB and to navigate through government, medical and educational agencies.

The need to provide a safe and healthy home for refugees has continued to grow. The UN has estimated that over 115 million people worldwide are presently displaced from their homes because of violence, conflict, persecution or economic and environmental disasters. Our QAS International Outreach Committee continues to try and help some of those in need, but would like to ask the parish for help in their efforts.

At present, there is a family of 3 young girls/women and one brother who have had to flee the Taliban regime in Afghanistan. After months of difficult and dangerous travels, they will be arriving soon in Moncton, and the committee is still in need of funds and household basics (furniture and kitchenware) to help settle them here in safety.

Thank you to all who have already assisted and donated to this cause.

For more information on what this committee does and how you can help, please contact
Bill Black 506-850-8215
