

Michael Mooney

Date of Hire: August 2011

Michael Mooney is a native of Louisiana and is a graduate of Louisiana State University. He received his sporting goods education in the swamps, bayous, and playing fields of his home state. Michael worked at Steinberg's Sports Center in Baton Rouge before relocating to Fort Worth, Texas to work for Nations Best Sports as a buyer for hunting, fishing, camping, water sports, and rugged outdoor footwear, later becoming director of merchandising. In 1999 he became national sales manager for Nash Manufacturing before leaving to become vice president of the outdoor division of Alliance Sports Group. Michael has previously traveled the TALO States as a manufacturer's representative. He will utilize his vast experience in the industry to help marry the interest of the customers in his territory and the factories we represent. Michael is also our regional manager for the TALO area.
