Showgirl – Brooke Martin-Smith

I was born in Cooma in 1994 and am the eldest of three. My younger siblings are Hamish and Amber and our parents, Andy and Susie Martin-Smith are graziers. Dad has lived in Nimmitabel his whole life and his parents, Sue and Pete Martin-Smith, are from Gourrock, Monaro Highway. Our family lived at Murrallula, Tom Groggin Road until 2002 when we moved to Glenfinnan, Springfield Road.

I went to primary school at St Patrick's Parish School Cooma and used to spend my weekends and afternoons helping out on the farm. I went to boarding school in year 7 and after that my involvement at home was restricted to the school holidays, when Dad always made sure there was plenty of lamb marking or shearing to help out with.

When I finished school I spent a year living at home, working at Birdsnest, where I experienced first hand the impact that strong women in rural centres have upon shaping opportunities for young people in the area.

I then moved to Sydney to study Design and International Studies at UTS. I spent 2017 living in Italy, studying and travelling and have returned with a greater appreciation for home. Sydney has provided me with many amazing experiences, but my plan is to move closer to home in the near future.

Having spent so much time away from home, I hope that the showgirl experience will give me an opportunity to reconnect with my local community. I look forward to becoming more involved with the Nimmitabel Show and seeing where this experience leads me.

Our showgirl is sponsored by Birdsnest & The Cooma Flower Shop.

Rural Achiever Nominee – Sarah Nesbitt

Sarah has grown up on the Monaro and is a fifth-generation farming background. Sarah has a passion for Agriculture and the livestock and wool industry.

Sarah's heart is in the country and returns to help out on their Charolais Stud at Cooma as much as possible and is involved in the selection of genetics for their Charolais breeding program.

Sarah attended St Pauls College Walla Walla to complete her HSC studies at which time Sarah was the senior leader of the Rural Youth Team helping with breaking and preparing cattle for local Agricultural shows around Albury, Henty, The Rock, Cootamundra then entering the college team for the Canberra Royal, Melbourne and Sydney Royal Shows. During the evenings Sarah completed her Certificate IV in Wool Classing with the Riverina TAFE receiving an award for the highest average mark.

Sarah has a keen eye for livestock and enjoys showing and judging beef cattle. Sarah was Reserve Junior Champion Beef Cattle Judge and Reserve Junior Champion Merino Wool Judge at Sydney Royal Easter Show in 2015.

Following this success Sarah was invited to be the Australian RAS representative in New Zealand in both Dairy Cattle and Beef Cattle judging and Parading. The opportunity gave Sarah networking opportunities seeing her returning to New Zealand to assist during the showing season for 5 months over summer on Rauriki Charolais Stud in the North Island and Grampians Angus Stud in the South Island. Sarah was involved with artificial insemination, breaking and showing cattle, lamb docking and horses.

Upon completion of the HSC Sarah deferred her university entry to take up a position as Junior Draftsperson at Kotzur Silo's. Sarah quickly grasped the design and drafting of grain silo's and bulk handling systems, wishing to progress further in this field, Sarah took up her university entry into a Bachelor of Engineering at the University of Wollongong. Sarah is keen to continue design and drafting to assist the primary production in Agricultural fields and finds inspiration in all things farming.

Sarah is delighted to have been asked to represent the Monaro as a 2019 Rural Achiever entrant which she sees as an opportunity to further develop her skills alongside likeminded people in the Agricultural sector.

1tbsp finely grated lime zest
3 eggs, separated
300g (2cups) self-raising flour
250ml (1cup) buttermilk
1-2tbsp lime juice

Method

Preheat oven to moderate (180C). Grease a 20cm (8in) round cake tin and line base with baking paper.

Cream butter, sugar and lime zest in a small mixing bowl until pale and creamy. Add and beat in egg yolks one at a time until combined. Transfer to a large mixing bowl.

Stir in half of the sifted flour, half of the buttermilk and half of the lime juice, then stir in the balance of the sifted flour, buttermilk and lime juice.

Whisk egg whites until soft peaks form. Fold in about half of the whites into mixture then fold in remainder - it will mix in better. Spread into the prepared tin.

Bake for about one hour or until cooked. Stand for 10 minutes before turning out.

Ice on top only.
