

Woycik, Philip

He is a Man He is a man just like me. He laughed, he cried and suffered through some awful pain. He loved music. He is a brother, father, son, uncle, and friend. He is a special person to me. He is not suffering now. I remember the times when we talked, got mad, and cheered each other up. He is now waiting for me to join him again. His time is up on Earth. I will miss my brother. We will meet again. I don't want to see him suffer anymore. I love my brother.

Philip Woycik, 37, died Thursday, Jan. 16, 2003, at Tendercare in Cass City after a long battle with Lou Gehrig's Disease. He was born on Oct. 10, 1965 in Bad Axe to the late Ernest and Ilene (Armstead) Woycik. Phil graduated from Harbor Beach High School in 1984, although most of his schooling was in Bad Axe. He was a great father who enjoyed cooking, music, and playing the tuba. He is survived by five daughters, Amber, Autumn, Jacklynn, Jessica, and Emma; a very special friend, Sharon; four brothers, John Woycik and his wife, Marcia, of Flint, Terry Woycik and his wife, Rose, of Ortonville, Roy Woycik and his special friend, Sue, of Warren, Charles Woycik and his wife, Beth, of Waterford; three sisters, Linda Bolinger and her husband, Dave, of Flint, Joyce Kendrick and her husband, Roger, of Flint, Beverly Zick and her husband, Dean, of Bad Axe; several nieces and nephews; and special friend, Amy. Cremation took place. A memorial dinner is being planned for a later date. Memorials may be offered to the Family Discretionary Fund. Arrangements have been handled by MacAlpine Funeral Home.
