LOOK WHO'S HERE!

House parents are here!

Your faith and patience in the Lord's work is producing house parents! Not only Dennis and Pamela that you met in the August Tidbits are now direct-care givers (house parenting), but other couples are applying. Keep it up. Keep praying. Keep watching. You are ambassadors. You are recruiters for the Ranch. The children are always onsite – unless there are no couples to care for them. The Ranch offers excellent opportunity for believers to live and work as couples in a rural community with traditional Christian values. If you have ever been to an old-fashioned Christian family camp, you have some idea of what the Ranch setting is like.

Because house parents are here — a mom and baby are here!

This is our precious young mom sorting through baby things for her little one. (That is a marking pen in the middle of the carpet for labeling bags of outsized items.)

She found a quote to share about her initial reaction to being on the Ranch. "Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that."

What baby items can you find in this photo?

*Surely I have behaved and quieted myself as a child that is weaned of his mother;
My soul is even as a weaned child. (Psalm 131:2)*

Local volunteers are here!

Lori is waving at you! Lori and her family recently moved to Benson. They have a desire to come alongside the Ranch and she enjoys riding the mower. Read about her first impression of the Lord's work at The Ranch.

"I first read about the Ranch online. But when I saw it in person, it surpassed anything I could have imagined. The moment I stepped onto the property a great overwhelming peace came over all of us, like it overtook us. I felt wonderful even before meeting anyone. Then after talking one after another with the staff, I kept getting better and better and better feelings about this whole ministry. This work is a true work straight from God and I've never felt closer to Him — even while in school. The years I spent earning my degree at Kentucky Christian University are some of the best years of my walk with the Lord. College was wonderful for me to learn more about God and enjoy His Presence. The Ranch is the only time since then that I feel totally in tune with a mission, where everyone has a mind for Christ."

REVIVAL RACING
MINISTRY VOLUNTEERS
ARE HERE! These young people know how to "get 'er done". But not all the racers were working. Someone HAD to use the playground, right? In November Revival Racing will put on a Special event at the Ranch.

Read all about it next month.
