Gospel: Luke 20: 27-38.

Living Life to the Fullest

Jesus lived His life fully, celebrating each moment, each encounter, and each relationship with joy. He embraced human experience, drank deeply of human emotions, was nourished and comforted by human love. But He was always looking into the eyes of His Father. He was always conscious of the circle of His human existence, leading Him from God back to God. He never lost His sense of direction and purpose and in that sense. He was prepared for whatever came. His love of the Father was integrated into all that He said and did and became. There was no event, no person, no circumstance that ever separated Him from His Father. So we, too, must learn to live fully to love fully, to journey trustingly. There is really only one answer - and that is the leap of faith.

The Lord calls us to live this life with great hope and faith. We believe that Jesus Christ is the Life and the Resurrection. And, we believe that when we die, we are so fully engulfed in God's embrace that we become a part of his existence in ways we could never imagine and in ways that we can never describe. It is because of this that we can articulate the good news that living our lives in love has an eternal connectedness with living on in God after death.
