CONFIDENTIAL

CISCE / CIR

1st May 2020

To: All Heads of Schools affiliated to the CISCE

Subject: Conduct of the remaining subject / papers of the ICSE & ISC Year 2020 Examinations.

Dear Principal,

This is further to the CISCE letter dated 19th March 2020 regarding the postponement of the conduct of the remaining subjects of the ICSE and ISC Year 2020 Examinations, which were scheduled to be held on and after 19th March 2020.

The CISCE has received numerous queries from the students, parents, teachers and Heads of Schools relating to the revised dates for the conduct of the remaining Subjects of the ICSE & ISC Year 2020 Examinations. All queries are justified and have been suitably taken into consideration. In this connection the CISCE clarifies as under:

1. Conduct of the remaining papers of the examinations: The CISCE shall conduct the ICSE (Class X) & ISC (Class XII) Year 2020 Examinations for all the remaining subjects/papers, which are: -

ICSE Year 2020: Geography – H.C.G Paper 2; Biology – Science Paper 3; Economics; Group III Elective; Hindi and Art Paper 4. (6 Subjects)

ISC Year 2020: Biology Paper 1; Business Studies; Geography; Sociology; Psychology; Home Science Paper 1; Elective English and Art paper 5. (8 Subjects)

These exams shall be conducted within a period of 6-8 days, including Saturday and Sunday.

2. The Schedule of revised dates: The CISCE shall announce the schedule of the revised dates for the remaining papers; however, this shall be subject to the Central Government's directives on the lockdown.
3. Prior information: Schools shall be notified about the conduct of the examinations 8 days prior to the commencement of the examinations. This time may be utilized by the Schools to make all the necessary arrangements and also enable the students to revise for their remaining papers

4. Communication Mode: The schedule of the revised dates for the remaining papers will be communicated to all Heads of Schools via email and through the CAREERS Portal. It will also be uploaded on the CISCE official website - www.cisce.org
5. Evaluation of scripts: The CISCE has been actively in contact with its examiners across the country, both prior and during the lock down period. While the evaluation of some subjects has been successfully completed, the evaluation for several subjects is also currently in progress.
6. Result Declaration: After the conduct of the remaining Examinations, the CISCE shall declare the results within a period of 6-8 weeks.
7. School work in the interim period: The CISCE advises its affiliated schools to continue with the teaching-learning processes in their respective Schools during the period of lockdown. This could be done by using the technologies available, i.e. through the online mode. For Classes 1-8 the curriculum may be transacted using fun and creative lessons. For the Board level Classes of IX - XII, the schools are requested to continue with teaching, as per the respective syllabuses. Teachers may also utilize this period to clear the doubts of the students in the subjects for which the Examination is yet to be conducted.
8. Class XI Admissions and Preparation for entrance examinations: The schools may give provisional admission to the ICSE students into Class XI, subject to the Board results. The schools may also begin / continue online classes for them, while awaiting the conduct of the remaining papers. Similarly, the ISC students may start / continue with preparations for the various entrance examinations during this interim period.

The Heads of Schools are required to ensure that the above information is properly disseminated to all the concerned students, parents and teachers at the earliest.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

Gerry Arathoon
