

SOME HELPFUL DETAILS FOR THE 2017 H, D, & F CONFERENCE

LOCAL WEATHER: Although there are several Internet weather services available (e.g., Intellicast) your best bet is the Web site of the dominant local TV station, WHIO. This has the latest equipment (e.g., Doppler HD weather radar) and the largest local staff of meteorologists.

FLYING IN: The airport shuttle is free. When flying in, please retrieve your baggage first, then look for the courtesy telephone to the Airport Clarion Inn near the baggage pickup area. If you have a wireless (cellular) telephone, call (937) 832-1234, again, after retrieving your baggage.

MOTORING IN: The Airport Clarion Inn is at Exit 29 (State Route 48) of Interstate 70, the second exit west of the intersection of Interstate Routes 70 and 75, two of the most heavily-traveled highways in the nation. The Inn is visible from I-70 if you're going west (e.g., coming from I-75). If you're driving east (e.g. from Indianapolis), you can't see it quite as easily. Thus, for eastbound travelers, it's best to look for Exit #29, turn left (north) off the ramp, go under the highway, and again turn left onto Rockridge Road. For those with GPS systems, the address is 10 Rockridge Road, Englewood, Ohio 45322. The reconstruction of I-75 through downtown Dayton, long a choke point, was completed last fall.

A HINT TO WOULD-BE MYCROFT HOLMES'S: Sherlock Holmes' brother, Mycroft, you may recall, disliked walking and all other forms of exercise. In this document, a short walk is one-half mile or less. An easy walk is a full mile or less. If you are unable to walk these distances because of inclement weather, physical disability, or simply a Mycroftian dislike of exertion, we recommend sticking to the Welcome Reception and Humpty's Restaurant (see below).

WELCOME RECEPTION ON FRIDAY EVENING AT 6:30 P.M.: This will not be at the Clarion, but at the Hampton Inn. The Hampton is an easy walk. However, you can take the free shuttle because of the steep hill. The shuttle will be ready at 6:15 P.M. It will also be available on demand afterward, but please remember that patrons coming from the airport have priority.

RESTAURANTS: You can make a light meal of the hors d'œuvres at the Friday Reception. If you arrive early (and hungry) or choose not to go to the Reception, the Clarion has its own restaurant and bar: Humpty's. There are a number of chain eateries nearby (SHORT WALK): Bob Evans, Frisch's Big Boy, Perkins Pancake House, and Skyline Chili. There is a AAA-rated, locally owned restaurant about two miles away: The Buckhorn Tavern. The hotel shuttle can take you there and back, but reservations are recommended on weekends. There are numerous restaurants (Cracker Barrel, Max & Erma's, Olive Garden, Outback Steak House, and many more, some locally owned) on Miller's Lane, just south of the I-70/I-75 intersection, about ten minutes by car from the Clarion Inn. The strip is known to natives as "Restaurant Row." Take I-70 east to I-75, and take I-75 south to the BENCHWOOD ROAD/WYSE ROAD exit, turn right off the ramp, and finally turn right again. The Clarion Inn has complimentary breakfast for those lodging there.

HOUSES OF WORSHIP: Concord United Methodist Church is ½ block away. There are a number of other churches (and one synagogue) of various denominations nearby for those with automobiles. Ask at the Conference Registration Desk.

REWARD POINTS: If you are a member of Choice Hotels' Rewards Plans (Choice is the parent company of Clarion), you may use your accumulated points. Inform the clerk at the Front Desk upon registering.

TOURISM: If you are coming with a spouse or friend who (heaven forbid!) will not attend the Conference, there are numerous sights to see. The most famous area attraction—tied with the Rock 'n Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland as Ohio's largest tourist draw—is the National Air Force Museum in suburban Riverside, open every day but Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's. Admission and parking are free. It is less than half an hour from the Clarion Inn by car, but—alas!—about two hours by bus (see PUBLIC TRANSIT, just below), with a change in downtown Dayton. One can easily spend an entire day at the Museum, which has a restaurant (but alcohol is not served). Free guided tours are available. Dayton's rich history includes aviation (Dayton was home to the Wright Brothers) and technology (everything from cash registers to electronic point-of-sale terminals, flip-top cans, bar codes, RFID, and—most recently—drones). It is recounted at Carillon Park, run by Dayton History. The Park features an excellent restaurant with a working craft brewery. For outdoorsy types (weather permitting), an award-winning park with hiking trails near the Clarion is Aullwood Garden Center. If your traveling companion wishes to attend the Banquet, he or she need not be registered for the Conference. Merely buy another Banquet admission.

PUBLIC TRANSIT: The Dayton region has a good bus system, run by the Regional Transit Authority (RTA), but weekend schedules are attenuated, especially in the suburbs. There is a bus stop at the foot of the hill, a short walk from the Inn's entrance. Route maps and bus schedules for the entire metropolitan area can be found here. Click on the "VIEW THE RTA SYSTEM MAP AS A PDF FILE" option. The Clarion is at H-6 on the RTA map, and is served by the #16 bus route. Look here in the column marked "Meijer & Route 48," then deduct five minutes from each time entry PRINTED COPIES OF THIS DOCUMENT will be available at the Conference Registration Desk, but obviously the hyperlinks (underlined words) will not work on a "hard" (paper) copy!

WI-FI: The Clarion Inn has free wireless Internet. The password is "hotel" (all lower case, and omit the quotes). Like most public wireless networks, this one is insecure, and we urge you to have reputable security software on your digital device.

USEFUL TELEPHONE NUMBERS: CLARION INN – (937) 832-1234; MARTIN ARBAGI (Program Chairman) – (937) 694-5256. That wireless (cellular) telephone will be on Friday evening, and all day Saturday from about 8:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M.
