All About Jesus & Mary

July 25, 2018

Meditation on the July 25th Message

by Fr. Al Bermudez, OSSM

"Mary Leads Us To Her Son, Jesus!"

Mother Mary is constantly reminding us of Her role in our Salvation. Often, She tells us, "Do what He tells you." And she says it in so many different ways.

Why is our Heavenly Mother continually telling us this? It is because She wants all of Her children to be in Heaven with Her and Her Divine Son, Jesus. This is why She keeps coming to us, with this message of love.

Whether we are aware of it or not, Jesus is the Source of our strength. Only through Him will we find refuge from evil. Without us realizing it, temptation lurks everywhere, in an effort to separate us from the Grace that we are all meant to receive. It is our choice. We, sometimes, do not realize that something is evil, especially if the world approves of it. We get drawn up into it, without being aware. We have to be alert at all times.

How do we do this? Through prayer. The Rosary is a great defense, the chain that will bind evil. The Hail Marys ask Our Lady to intercede for us, but the Mysteries are the Life of Christ. A Protestant was converted by the Rosary, when she actually listened to the words of the prayers and read the Mysteries' meditations.

We are preparing for the upcoming Novena of Our Lady of Sorrows, in September & the Rosary Congress, in October, two big Marian events where Our Lady is the Special Intercessor.

Make plans to participate in one or both of them. Listen to Our Lady and "Do what He tells you."

Amen.

Love, Fr. Al

MESSAGE of OUR LADY

at MEDJUGORJE

July 25, 2018

Dear children!

God called me to lead you to Him because
He is your strength.

That is why I am calling you to pray to Him
and to trust in Him,
because He is your refuge
from every evil that lurks and carries souls far from the grace and joy to which you are all called.

Little children,
live Heaven here on earth
so that it will be good for you;
and may the Commandments of God
be a light on your way.

I am with you and I love you all with my motherly love.

Thank you for having responded to my call.

We recently had as our guest on the radio program, Curtis Pierce. If you remember, he gave testimony of the tragic loss of his daughter by violence. We hadn't heard from him in a long time, but his recent visit gave us an inkling of having had more tragedy in his family. We have had calls from our listeners who were greatly touched by his story, they were especially touched by the song he ended the program with, "If You Could See Me Now." Curtis promised that he will be back often, with installments of his story, because there is no much to share, much too much for one program. We look forward to this renewed relationship with him. It seems that he needs us just as much as we need him.

Curtis is a real singer. He used to have a band. He sang 2 songs on the program. The one he sang live, Yvonne came upstairs to hear him. She'd heard him sing many years ago, when his band played at an event she attended.

So keep listening, Curtis will be singing again as his story continues.

We are excited about the upcoming Novena of Our Lady of Sorrows. See the ad on page 7, with more details. As you may remember, we started the Novena in 1991, with the aid of Fr. Peter Mary Rookey, OSM. His healing services packed churches for years. Now, a group of his family & friends, in the Chicago area, are working to open his Cause for Canonization. So, if you have a story about him or a healing through him, please write it down and send it to us. We are helping to collect documentation, necessary for this event.

The Novena has a different Celebrant every night, a Healing Service is included and the last night hosts a Procession. This is a beautiful service conducted in honor of Our Lady. What a wonderful way to let Our Lady know how much

Our Lady's July 2, 2018 Message to Mirjana D. Soldo

For Non-believers: those who have not come to know the Lord.

"Dear children, I am the mother of all of you and, therefore, do not be afraid because I hear your prayers. I know that you seek me and that is why I am praying to my Son for you, my Son who is united with the Heavenly Father and the Holy Spirit—the Paraclete—my Son who leads souls to the Kingdom from where He came, the Kingdom of peace and light. My children, you are given the freedom to choose, but, as a mother, I implore you to choose the freedom for the good. You, with pure and simple souls comprehend—even if sometimes you do not understand the words—and within yourselves you feel what the truth is My children, do not lose the truth and true life so as to follow the false one. By life in truth, the Kingdom of Heaven enters into your hearts, and that is the Kingdom of peace, love and harmony. Then, my children, there will not be the selfishness which distances you from my Son. There will be love and understanding for your neighbors. Because, remember, again I repeat to you, to pray also means to love others, your neighbors, and to give yourself to them. Love and give in my Son, and then He will work in you and for you. My children, ceaselessly think of my Son and love Him immeasurably and you will have true life, and that will be for eternity. Thank you, apostles of my love."

Positive News For Medjugorje

from The Vatican
The following is the Exceptional Vatican Press Release about MEDJUGORJE that we all have been waiting for!

Our Lady has taken care of this Herself, just like she did in Lourdes & Fatima!

I'm sure, by now, many of you have heard the good news, but I wanted to share it in a special way with you today too! On May 31, the feast of the Visitation, Our Lady gave us a wonderful gift! The Vatican press room issued a statement regarding Medjugorje which made us rejoice: Pope Francis has appointed a special Apostolic Visitor for the parish of Medjugorje. To our great joy, this appointee is Archbishop Henryk Hoser, who was appointed with a short term mission in Medjugorje in February 2017. At that time he was asked to acquire a deeper knowledge of the pastoral situation, and to assess the needs of the faithful in Medjugorje.

This mission proved to be very positive; Mgr. Hoser had stated that he was sent by the Pope to "comfort us." "In Medjugorje, there are many spiritual fruits," he said at the end of that mission.

Let us continue to pray for this new assignment given to Mgr. Hoser, with the renewed hope that this Vatican statement has given us! And most importantly, let us continue to respond to the calls of the Queen of Peace, because it is by living her messages that Medjugorje will bear all the spiritual fruits that Heaven expects. "Make further progress" as said St. Paul to the Thessalonians (4.1).

Here is the official text that Fr. Marinko (the parish priest of Medjugorje) read to us that day after the evening Mass. Needless to say it was greeted with much excitement and was widely applauded by the large numbers of faithful who had gathered for the feast of the Visitation and that of the Blessed Sacrament (Corpus Christi):

"On this day, the 31st of May, 2018, the Holy See has appointed Henryk Hoser, SAC, the retired Archbishop of Warsaw-Prague (Poland) as Apostolic Visitor with a special role for the parish of Medjugorje for an indefinite time, and ad nutum Sanctae Sedis. At the specific request of the Holy See, his appointment is for pastoral ministry, a continuation of the mission of the special envoy of the Holy See for the parish of Medjugorje, entrusted to Mgr. Hoser on February 11, 2017, and in which he completed in the previous months."

The purpose of the mission of the Apostolic Visitor is to provide a firm and permanent accompaniment of the parish community in Medjugorje and the faithful who come on pilgrimage here, whose needs require a special attention."

Dearest Mother, we thank you so much for the gift of Mgr. Henryk Hoser! Guide him and lead him in his work, and help him to provide the spiritual nourishment the parish community and pilgrims need. May this step forward from the Vatican draw even more people closer to your Son Jesus.

We are sooooo excited!!!!!!!
We've all heard negative statements from people who said that Pope Francis doesn't like Medjugorje. Why would anyone even say that?

The news of this letter came just weeks after we were discussing the outcome of the bishops first visit with a friend. Our statement was, "Our Lady will have to take care of it Herself, just as she did in Lourdes and Fatima!"

And guess what? She did! ▀

we love her. Everyone is invited.

The Rosary Congress is going to be extra special, this year. The Congress is really starting to take off. We had a special guest from the National Group on our radio program August 5th. She will also be the guest speaker at the Rosary Congress in October. This year, the Congress will be held at Our Lady of Divine Providence in Metairie, at West Metairie & N. Starrett Rd. Everyone is excited about this year's event. Mark your calendar for this annual event. There is plenty of parking and everyone is invited.

The Magnificat Westbank has two great speakers set for the remainder of 2018: Denny Charbonnet for September 8, Sr. Dulce for December 8.

We are extremely happy about the letter from the Vatican Press we published in the Marian Phenomena article on page 2. Those of us who have traveled to Medjugorje and witnessed the miracles and occurrences there, are deeply grateful. We have all been praying for this, for a long time. We had recently had a conversion about this subject before the letter was made public. Our statement was that Our Lady was going to take care of it herself. And take care of it, she did! People, around the world, are rejoicing over it. All the miracles that Fr. Rookey turned in to the Church of St. James rectory office, that he was a part of, that were held in the cemetery, in the court yard outside the church, on both of the mountains. If you read Margaret's book, "Do You Believe That Jesus Can Heal You?" you will learn about some of them. The title of the book is what Fr. Rookey said to the person he was praying over.

All this is so exciting for me. So much of this I was present for. I, personally, had a little miracle or two myself, in Fr. Rookey's presence.

Just think, folks, many of you, just like me, spent a lot of time in Fr. Rookey's presence. You may have been at the Healing Services, the Day of

Hilda Ann Randall Perkins
August 6, 1938 - July 13, 2018

MEMORIAL

Hilda Perkins has been a charter member of the Metairie Chapter of Mary's Helpers. She was there at the beginning.

We heard that Hilda took care of the Blessed Mother statue in the garden at Metairie Manor for years. She saw to it that it was kept clean and freshly painted year round. She was also a member of the Legion of Mary.

Hilda was close to Mother Mary all of her life. She was one of 4 children; with 6 grandchildren & 8 great grandchildren.

At her funeral, one of her granddaughters sang, "I Will Always Love You." I guarantee, there wasn't a dry eye in the church.

Hilda was a living example to all of faith and love to her family. We know she will be greatly missed. We know that she is looking down on all of us.

Recollections, or on a pilgrimage to a Holy Shrine. One thing that you will never forget, he couldn't pass up a piano, no matter how late it was at night.

We made frequent visits to Chicago to visit with Fr. Rookey and his friends, the Stauntons, where we lodged. Every First Monday of the month, the Stauntons would host a Rosary, Mass & Healing Service in their home. Fr. Rookey was usually the celebrant. When Fr. Rookey conducted a Healing Service, he fasted all day. When the Services were over, he sat down to a sumptuous meal, all by himself. At the Stauntons, he was seated at the breakfast table, in the back corner of the kitchen, he actually sat in the corner. He was right by the phone, which hung on the wall, with a long cord. This particular night, I was standing there when the phone rang. A woman's voice asked for Fr. Rookey, and to tell him that Dolores was calling. I leaned over to Father and gave him the message. He said he would take the call. I could not hear what he was saying, but when he hung up the phone, he said, "That was Dolores Hope. She is going to fly me out to California for her 100th birthday celebration.

This past month, July 17th, our guest priest at the Mass site in Houma was Fr. Joseph Doyle, SSJ, while Fr. Paul was out of town. It was a delight to see Fr. Doyle again. He had not changed, he still looks young and full of the Spirit. Fr. Doyle did mention the fact that the Remnant Church is everywhere, looking at the size of the attendance monstrance as the beautiful colors begin, and then our Lord's awesome Glory comes pouring out upon those adoring our Lord. This was the first time this has happened outside of Holy Adoration. I am so thankful to our God for such a precious gift!

A Daily Eucharist Reflection – April 2018 - A Eucharistic Miracle -

On 14th September, 1226, the festival of the Holy Cross was being solemnly celebrated in Avignon, when the Rhone suddenly overflowed its banks and flooded the city to such an extent as to make people fear that the water would reach the altar on which the Most Holy Sacrament was exposed in the chapel of the Grey Penitents. When the first panic had subsided a few courageous men went to the church in a boat to save it. The water had certainly entered the church, but divided to the right and the left, leaving the passage to the altar, on which was still the Most Holy, surrounded by burning candles, quite dry. In an incredibly short time, knowledge of the miracle spread, and a number of boats were seen to move towards the church, among them that of King Louis VIII, who happened to be in Avignon. In memory of the prodigy, daily exposition of the Most Holy Sacrament which, after seven centuries, is still carried on, was established in this chapel, at the Mass. We did have a few new people there. One stated that she had not been to the Mass in a long time.

It was a little warm, but a breeze was blowing, there were no mosquitoes, and although it was raining in other areas nearby, it did not rain on the Mass. Curtis Pierce had said that he was going to go to the Mass, but didn't because it was raining by his house in Galliano, and thought it would be raining in Houma. Not a drop.

We have been asking our readers & radio listeners if they had an experience or story Jack Marie Smith, since his death. I received a prayer that he had given one of the ladies during his visit to the Houma Mass site.

– The Veil of the Holy Spirit –
May 12, 2018 by Ethel Pearl

Today, I was given a beautiful vision of the Holy Spirit's Veil through a very good spiritual speaker at an event I had the wonderful opportunity to attend. After the speaker was finished with the presentation, everyone in attendance was invited to come up and receive a blessing by a visiting Priest and the speaker. I was one of the last to receive a blessing. As the blessings were poured upon me and as the speaker spoke to me, I was brought to her attention by looking up at her face. I stood there in awe as I saw the Veil of the Holy Spirit covering her face. Thank You my Lord for gifting me with such a holy vision, I love You and I adore You!

(I have come to realize for some time now that it is the Veil of the Holy Spirit that I'm given before my Lord gifts me with a vision during Holy Adoration. The Veil is fixed around the Holy Eucharist in the

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE GOSPEL

A people for everyone Contd.

113. The salvation which God has wrought, and the Church joyfully proclaims, is for everyone. God has found a way to unite himself to every human being in every age. He has chosen to call them together as a people and not as isolated individuals. No one is saved by himself or herself, individually, or by his or her own efforts. God attracts us by taking into account the complex interweaving of personal relationships entailed in the life of a human community. This people which God has chosen and called is the Church. Jesus did not tell the apostles to form an exclusive and elite group. He said: "Go and make disciples of all nations" (Mt 28:19). Saint Paul tells us in the people of

St. Sharbel Makhlof

May 8, 1828 - December 24, 1898

Saint of Miracles

- Part 9

Miracles Abound

The famous photo taken at the Monastery of St. Maron on May 8, 1950 that bore the image of St. Sharbel was shown to those who Sharbel had appeared to in special visions and he was identified as the St. Sharbel who had appeared to them. After this verification of the picture the monks of his Lebanese-Marionite Order then offered the picture to the public as the real picture of St. Sharbel.

One of those who was blessed to see the holy monk was Naeem Ghawwy who was appointed as a physician for the Monastery of Saint Maron in 1950. He reported the following story. The people were everywhere in and outside of the monastery. A thirteen year old Armenian boy came to the monastery carried by his father. He had been treated for a bone tuberculosis disease in an American Hospital and was in serious condition. The boy was carried to the tomb by his father and the next day I was informed the boy was experiencing serious chest pain. I tried to persuade the father to take him to a nursing room so he could be treated but the father refused saying, "It's better for my son to lose his life and not lose his place near the tomb." That same night at midnight four buses arrived at the monastery; the visitors entered the church

God, in the Church, "there is neither Jew or Greek... for you are all one in Christ Jesus" (Gal 3:28). To those who feel far from God and the Church, to all those who are fearful or indifferent, I would like to say this: the Lord, with great respect and love, is also calling you to be a part of his people!

114. Being Church means being God's people, in accordance with the great plan of his fatherly love. This means that we are to be God's leaven in the midst of humanity. It means proclaiming and bringing God's salvation into our world, which often goes astray and needs to be encouraged, given hope and strengthened on the way. The Church must be a place of mercy freely given, where everyone can feel welcomed, loved, forgiven and encouraged to live the good life of the Gospel.

A people of many faces

115. The People of God is incarnate in the peoples of the earth, each of which has its own culture. The concept of culture is valuable for grasping the various expressions of the Christian life present in God's people. It has to do with the lifestyle of a given society, the specific way in which its members relate to one another, to other creatures and to God. Understood in this way, culture embraces the totality of a people's life. Each people in the course of its history develops its culture with legitimate autonomy. This is due to the fact that the human person, "by nature stands completely in need of life in society and always exists in reference to society, finding there a concrete way of relating to reality. The human person is always situated in a culture:

singing hymns. One of the visitors tried to pass a prayer book to an old monk who had accompanied them into the church. When the visitor got closer to the monk, the monk disappeared! I was close to the church when I noticed the sudden quietness. I rushed toward the window thinking someone must have fainted. Before I reached the window, I saw a monk walking out of the church. I passed so close to him that our shoulders touched. When I learned from the visitors what had transpired I rushed outside to find out the identity of this monk. When I looked toward the hermitage, I saw the monk walking toward the east. I chased after him and pointed my flashlight at him. The moment I reached him and my hand touched his clothes, I stopped, perplexed, and was about to lose consciousness from fear. The monk suddenly disappeared. I looked around and then saw above the hermitage a strange brilliant light blurring my sight. While I was still in this state of fear, I heard coming from the side of St. Sharbel's tomb, cheers and applause. The young Armenian boy was completely healed.

A Shiite from Southern Lebanon shared the following story of his healing. I entered jail on November 9, 1948. I was healthy but I had a neurological disease. While I was in jail my worries increased because I had a family that depended on me. Five months ago, I felt pain in my body and weakness in my left eye. The fingers in my right hand became stiffened. I was treated by the doctors. After a long treatment, I lost all vision in my left eye. Then a month ago, I got joint inflammation.

I heard about Sharbel's miracles and I was making fun of them at first as if they were superstitions. I thought these miracles were propaganda to raise money. Finally, when I read in the newspapers about the numerous miracles and saw the photos

"nature and culture are intimately linked." Grace supposes culture, and God's gift becomes flesh in the culture of those who receive it.

116. In these first two Christian millennia, countless peoples have received the grace of faith, brought it to flower in their daily lives and handed it on in the language of their own culture. Whenever a community receives the message of salvation, the Holy Spirit enriches its culture with the transforming power of the Gospel. The history of the Church shows that Christianity does not have simply one cultural expression, but rather, "remaining completely true to itself, with unswerving fidelity to the proclamation of the Gospel and the tradition of the Church, it will also reflect the different faces of the cultures and peoples in which it is received and takes root." In the diversity of peoples who experience the gift of God, each in accordance with its own culture, the Church expresses her genuine catholicity and shows forth the "beauty of her varied face." In the Christian customs of an evangelized people, the Holy Spirit adorns the Church, showing her new aspects of revelation and giving her a new face. Through inculturation, the Church "introduces peoples, together with their cultures, into her own community," or "every culture offers positive values and forms which can enrich the way the Gospel is preached, understood and lived." In this way, the Church takes up the values of different cultures and becomes sponsa ornata monilibus suis, "the bride bedecked with her jewels" (cf. Is 61:10). NEXT Month - Part 32 of patients who had received healing through Sharbel's intercession, I believed in his holiness and vowed fifty Lebanese Liras. I asked the nurse, Avduca Saliba, to visit his tomb and here is the petition I wrote: I am a man who was imprisoned unjustly. I lost my vision and my health in prison. Therefore, I have recourse to God and Saint Sharbel. If he heals me from my sicknesses and I get out of jail, I would owe him five hundred Lebanese Liras. If I am guilty I don't want to get out of the jail and remain blind and lame. Here is my fifty Lebanese Liras with Avduca as down payment.

The nurse went to Annaya, along with a nun, the principal of the hospital, and Corporal Shafiq Beydoun, the chief officer. I felt optimistic about the visit. When they returned from the visit they gave me incense, blessed water, soil, and a piece of cotton from Sharbel's tomb. I soaked the cotton with the holy water and rubbed it on my eye and the swollen and painful parts of my body. After two hours, tears flowed down my eye after four months of dryness. The next morning I woke up early and realized I was completely cured. There was no trace of the inflammation or the pain. I also could move my stiffened fingers normally. My eye has begun to improve day by day. I am now reading large letters and my eye is on the way to full recovery.

Witnesses of Those Who Have Had Experiences While Praying Before this Image!

On MARCH 17, 2003, St. Patrick's Day, the 7th Anniversary, a crowd of about 250 people looked on in awe as they watched the MIRACLE of the SUN in full view beyond the trees. Everyone present witnessed the phenomena. Mary's Helpers Conference of JULY 2003 was Centered Around this image of Our Lady & her message, "Just Have Faith in My Son Jesus."
The 2nd - Joyce Cuber, Metairie, LA been battling for six years, four bouts with the last one in August of 2001.

Since December 20, 2001, we have had the picture in our home three times, praying the Rosary daily and our own personal prayers. On March 12, 2002, I was given the news from my doctor that I have no active cancer. In the last thirty months I have not received any cancer treatment.

We pray for the special ministry of Mary's Helpers. God bless you.

The 3rd - Virginia Simoneaux, Marrero, LA

A couple of weeks ago, I took one of the pictures of Mary home with me. I put it in our spare bedroom. After my daily walks, I'd go into the bedroom to exercise. My husband and I prayed the Rosary every night in the room by the picture of Mary.

Well, a couple of hours before I was to return the picture I attended the Novena. I had completed my exercise in the spare room. I looked up at Mary in the picture and mentioned the name of my son. I have been in such agony since his death. I asked her if she could find it in her heart to show me a sign to let me know that my son was in Heaven, even though really in my heart I felt he was there and She was protecting him. At that instant the light in that room went off. Of course it frightened me for a moment. I got out of the room and checked the rest of the house to make sure the other lights were on. They were. So I came back and knelt down immediately and started praying the Hail Mary. When I was done the light came back on. Of course I thanked Mary that he is our guardian angel and praying for all of us.

Prayer Against Evil Spirits Through The Immaculate Conception
By JACK MARIE SMITH

God, Who by the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, did prepare a worthy habitation for Your Son, we beseech You, by the merits of her Immaculate Conception, to drive ALL evil spirits from us.

Defend us against the evil that seeks our death and destruction.

It is then, by the Virtue of the Immaculate Conception, we can command all evil spirits to depart. Cease their attacks on us. In the Name of Jesus Christ and the Virtue of the Immaculate Conception. Amen.

Mensáje De Nuestra Señora

25 de Julio, 2018

¡Queridos hijos!

Dios me ha llamado para guiarlos a Él, porque Él es su fortaleza.

Por eso los invito a orarle y a confiar en Él, porque Él es su refugio ante todo mal que está al acecho y aleja las almas de la gracia y de la alegría a las que han sido llamados.

Hijitos, vivan el Paraíso aquí en la Tierra para que estén bien, y que los Mandamientos de Dios sean luz en su camino.

Yo estoy con ustedes y los amo a todos con mi amor maternal.

¡Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado!
