April 28 – April 30, 2023

Where hearts and halters come together.

Judges: Tami Lash (halter, performance and showmanship)
Elaine Brovant (walking fiber, assistant performance)
Email: heartlandllamashow@gmail.com

RULES

This is a two-day show. Showmanship, Performance, Walking Fiber classes will be held on Saturday. Halter classes will be held on Sunday.

This show is approved by the International Llama Registry Show Division.

All animals entered in approved classes must be registered with the International Llama Registry (ILR) or have an ILR Tracking Number. Failure to meet this requirement prohibits entry in the show.

Non-Breeder llamas must be accompanied by a registration or veterinarian certificate verifying the animal is a gelding, a vasectomized male, or a spayed or non-reproductive female.

Nursing llama mothers may not be accompanied in the ring by their babies.

No llama under the age of five months may be shown.

A llama ages on its birthday.

It is the exhibitor's responsibility to have animal(s) at the show ring promptly for their class.

LLAMAS MAY NOT BE MOVED FROM ONE CLASS TO ANOTHER AFTER HALTER JUDGING HAS BEGUN, EXCEPT AT THE JUDGE'S DISCRETION.

Youth may exhibit only one entry per youth class.

Youth may compete in Novice/Advanced Performance and Youth Performance, however, they must use a different llama.

A llama may only be used in one performance division.

Animals entered in Production Class may be decided after halter classes. However, they must be listed with show clerk before this class is held.

To qualify for Youth Performance Champion, the youth must show in Freestyle Obstacle, Companion PR and Trail Pack or Showmanship. They must use the same animal for all three performance classes. If showing in all four classes, the highest points in either Trail Pack or Showmanship will be used.

To qualify for Novice or Advanced Performance Champion, the exhibitor must show in Freestyle Obstacle, Companion PR and Trail Pack. They must use the same animal for all three performance classes.

Minimum age for a handler in any class is seven years old. Exhibitors under 11 years of age will NOT show intact males over the age of 18 months.

Alpacas may compete in the llama performance classes; however, we are not offering alpaca halter classes.

An animal may be entered in only ONE halter class. Halter classes are Suri, Silky, Light, Medium, Heavy, Non-Breeders.

If youth have their own ILR ID #, that must be shown on the entry form so they get credit for their youth entries.

It is understood and agreed that Heartland Llama Show and the North Iowa Events Center and its officials, employees and agents shall not be responsible for any loss, damage or injury to any person, property or animal which is caused directly or indirectly for any reason. The exhibitor also agrees to hold harmless Heartland Llama Show and the North Iowa Events Center for any expenses or liabilities including attorney fees.

IMPORTANT NOTES

We are bringing back the Saturday meal!! Menu is TBD, but please plan on staying after performance classes are complete on Saturday for much needed comradery!

Stalling is loose dirt—if using stall mats, utilizing bedding underneath is highly recommended.

If a youth has their own ILR ID #, please use this on the entry form instead of the animal owner's ID #. This will ensure that the youth gets credited for their youth classes.

North Iowa Event Center has a few rules that we were required to agree to in our contract. Please review those under the North Iowa Event Center Rules and abide by them.

T-shirts will be available for sale this year at the show printers will be on site.

YOUTH AGE DIVISIONS

a) Effective January 1, 2018, the youth age divisions shall be as follows:

Junior Youth - 7 thru 11 years, Intermediate Youth - 12 thru 14 years of age, Senior Youth - 15 thru 19 years of age

c) The age division in which the youth will show will be determined by their age on January 1st of that year, however, if a youth reaches the age of 7 any time during the year, they will be eligible to show as of their birth date and when a senior youth reaches their 20th birthday they are no longer eligible to show in the youth division at all.

NOVICE PERFORMANCE GUIDELINES

6. Novice Performance Animals: Novice Refers to the animal's ability and not the ability of the handler.

a) Animals must show in the appropriate division. Eligibility requirements for animals to show in the Novice Division are outlined as follows:

1) A Novice Animal is defined as an animal who has not earned 4 or more Grand or Reserve Championships in any Performance division (Novice, Open, or Youth) in any Show Association or Open Show with a minimum of 5 in the division. A double point show is counted as double championships regardless of the number of times the course was run

2) If a Novice Animal has moved to the Advanced division in any other Show Association, they must show in the Advanced division in the ILR-SD. Once an animal is entered in advanced it cannot move back to novice.

3) It is up to the Owner/Exhibitor to keep a record of their animal's placements and championships and to enter the animal correctly when entering ILR-SD Performance Classes.

4) Animals shown in the inappropriate division will be subject to having any placements, Awards, and Titles removed from them by the Governing Board.
