My Church

The days of yore have come and gone
And still fond memories linger on
Of friends so precious and so true
Who seemed to know just what to do.
If I should need a word of cheer
They always held me up in prayer
To God our Father on His throne.
My needs and wishes would make known
My Church, a strong and mighty tower
Where God would come in His great power.
The Saints would pray, the choir would sing
All Hail The Power of Christ our King!
Alas we cannot always stay
So many friends have passed away
To be with God in Heaven above
Where they can sing of His great love.
And since He bids us seek His face
We'll all one day His love embrace.
We'll hear the choir of Heaven sing
And be at last with God our King.
When we shall reach that shining shore
Our burdens here will all be o'er.
We'll praise Him for our church so true
That helped us all to make it through.
So help us Lord to thankful live
For every blessing thou do'est give.
Until one day on Heaven's shore
We'll live with you forever more.
And then at last the race is run
To hear those blessed words 'Well Done!'
