

Greg Higel is an At Large Water user on the Roundtable. He has served since 2006. He currently resides near Alamosa Colorado. Greg has been a farmer for 36 years and is the President of the Rio Grande Water Conservation District Board and the Rio Grande Water Users Association. He enjoys fishing and outdoor life.

Water Views: Everything I have done in my life has depended on water.