

Public Notice

Notice is hereby given to members of the Red Hook Alumni Association that at the annual business meeting of the Red Hook Alumni Association, to be held on July 27, 2013 at 7:00 PM at Hillside Manor, Route 32, Kingston, N.Y., a motion will be made by the Red Hook Alumni Council to amend the By-Laws of the Red Hook Alumni Association as follows:

Article III, Section 1C – to prescribe that Notice of the annual business meeting be given by 'any type of public notice'.

Article III, Section 2B – to allow council members to be eligible for two or more consecutive three year terms.

Article V, Section 2 – to allow the President and Vice President to serve three or more consecutive one year terms.

Article VII – to set the fiscal year from July 1 to June 30.

And to add the following Provisions:

A) Dissolution Provision

In the event of dissolution, all of the remaining assets and property of the corporation shall after necessary expenses thereof be distributed to such organizations as shall qualify under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; or to the federal government, or to a state or local government for a public purpose; or to another organization to be used in such manner as the judgment of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York determines will best accomplish the general purposes for which this organization was formed.

B) Non-inurement Provision

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the organization, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the organization), and no member, trustee, officer of the organization or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the assets on dissolution of the organization.

C) Restrictive Legislation Provision

No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), as amended, nor shall the corporation participate in, or intervene (including the publication or distribution of statements), in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

D) Restrictive Purposes and Activities Provision

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the following purposes: religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, as specified in section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.
