

Dusty Myers

Pro Rodeo Clown / Barrelman

Dusty Myers, from Jumpertown, Mississippi, has traveled the world entertaining crowds for several years now. He started fighting bulls at the age of thirteen and accomplished several awards in that sport.

Fast forward a few years, and Dusty decided to change hats in the world of rodeo, finding that entertainment was a far better prospect than being run down by two thousand pound bulls. Dusty's trademark mix of old school slapstick comedy with a dash of mischievous male cheerleading has entertained audiences throughout the country.

In just a couple of years he has earned multiple awards in the "clowning" business, having worked the IFR (International Finals Rodeo) on 10 different occasions, SFR twice, NFPB Finals 3 times, CRRA finals, and every region finals the IPRA has to offer. His biggest achievement was being selected "clown of the year" 9 consecutive years.
