BUSINESS:

FUELS PLUS AGREEMENT: Administration reported that Brownlee LLP had been contacted and given advice on how to proceed with this agreement. Administration to conduct a Title Search on the Property involved before moving forward.

CRSWSC : Administration reported that the Water Commission had been contacted regarding the Reservoir Water Bylaw deficiency with CRSWSC. Associated Engineering to contact us independently to discuss the expansion with Village Administration and funding opportunities to advance such a major infrastructure project for the community.

LAGOON PROJECT: Administration reported that Alberta Transportation had been contacted to discuss the Grant Funding that is currently being held for the rehabilitation of the lagoon. As this grant was applied for in 2011 and not granted until 2015 the scope of the work would have changed completely and we would need to revise the grant application and seek new approval.

RES 021-2019 Moved by Councillor Leicht that a formal withdrawal letter be written to Alberta Transportation releasing the grant funds.

CARRIED

HAY LAKES FIRE DEPARTMENT: Administration reported to Council that the cost of a radio for the 'bush truck' would cost the Village $850.00. Council asked Administration to follow up with Mike Kuzio of Camrose County regarding possible funding for this purchase.

Council discussed the removal of the two fire trucks situated on the east side of the Fire Hall.

RES 022-2019: Moved by Councillor Vallee to accept $1,000.00 for the yellow fire truck if we get an offer.

FORTIS: Administration to contact Fortis and formally inform them that the property at the far east end of town (the old Fuernkranz property) is now formally part of the Village of Hay Lakes and release Armena REA as the provider to this property.

UFA PROPERTY: Purchase of the land east of the Village office was discussed. A home inspection was completed on today's date. Councillor Leicht and Deputy Mayor These were present.

2019 BUDGET: Council requires a more comprehensive budget from the fire department and Administration needs to include the library budget asap.

REC CENTRE: Discussion regarding the concrete project and the importance to the Village. The replacement of the concrete around the Rec Centre needs to be completed this spring and summer to ensure no more water enters the building.

CDSS: CDSS Appointment of Alison Baker-Jevne to the CDSS Board of Directors.

RES 023-2019: Moved by Councillor Leicht to appoint Alison Baker-Jevne to the CDSS Board of Directors as representative to the Villages of Camrose County.
