

Church is not a place; it is who we are. Once we realize this, we can be the church anywhere.

ALL SAINTS LITANY

L: Let us Pray,

C: God of the ages, we give you thanks for the saints, those of our day and of days before, who nurtured us in faith who told us the stories of Jesus, and who cultivated among us the sense of our own vocation to follow God's Path. Help us not only to remember them, but also to follow their example, to nurture their expectant hope, and to live our lives so that others might see your love reflected in all that we say and do. Thank you, God, for the gift of your Saints.

L: O God, our help of ages past, we light candles today of our family and friends who are dear to us and who have died since last All Saints Day:

Ruth Johnson - Robert Geslin - Henry Lahn - Jim Hestikind - Jerry Pounds Jr. - Terry Jorgenson
June Kailer - Connie Jespersion - Dale Eppenberger - David Bryant - Margaruite Bryant

L: We give you thanks for all your faithful people who have followed the light of your word. We remember with Thanksgiving the saints alive today who continue to touch our lives and our faith journeys, and we look ahead with hope to the people whose faithful witness to God's love will inspire future generations. We also celebrate with the new saints who have been baptized into the body of Christ over the past year. This celebration is marked by the candles floating in the baptismal font, one for each member baptized.

Sebastian Majkozak - Andrew Jolly - Vivian Carroll - Ashton Pierce

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
