

SOS Wilderness Survival Workshops - 2019

Wilderness Survival Skills That Can Keep You & Your Family Safe - In the Wilderness or Post Disaster....

March 16, July 27 & Nov 2, 2019 — Saturdays, 8:00 am to 5:00 pm

Taught by Tim Kneeland, President of Survival Educators

Former USAF SERE Instructor with 50 years of survival training experience

INTRODUCTION:

Whether a wilderness traveler or someone who stays close to home, most of us will face unexpected, catastrophic emergencies sometime during our life-times. Preparation is an important start, but do you know how to: Be logical and thoughtful in your approach? Identify the real dangers to you and your family? Set realistic priorities? Find resources? Stay dry? Keep warm? Deal with basic first aid? Sanitize water for safe drinking? Find food? Signal rescue? Take care of human

SOLUTION:

For the fifth year, SOS has teamed up with Tim Kneeland to present a series of wilderness survival skills workshops that will help insure your survival, regardless of anything nature throws your way. Tim uses his thorough knowledge of outdoor survival skills and incorporates them into wilderness and post-disaster survival techniques.

TIM'S BIO:

Since 1965 Tim Kneeland, a former USAF Survival (SERE) Instructor, has been developing and teaching survival strategies for all environments of the world. He has taught military, government, municipalities, educational institutions, companies, SAR organizations, first responders, non-profit groups, and general-public audiences. His recent and current clients include Customs and Border Protection Pilots & Marine Officers, USCG Rescue Swimmers, Charter Aircraft Crews (FAR 135.331), and CERT/Emergency Responders and managers. Tim's detailed bio can be found at www.SurvivalEducators.com.
