Wrestling – Heather Coniglio

Here are some highlights from a tough two days of wrestling at the Madeira Invitational:

Zach King (Fr) got his first Varsity win this weekend at 132 lbs.

Matthew Coniglio (Fr), opening with an impressive win, in a very tough match, over the First Seed, eventually battled back after a couple subsequent difficult losses to place 6th at 120 lbs.

Austin 'Smalls' Roberts (Jr), like Matthew, opened up with the First Seed at 138 lbs. Also, an incredibly tough match. It looked like a Finals match! After dropping into the Conso's Bracket, Austin fought his way back to take 5th Place.

Nick Coniglio (Jr), opened up his post Christmas Break with some great action at 195 lb. weight class in this competition with a good 4th Place finish.

Richard 'Ricky' Brayton (Sr), Had a major battle in every HW match to start the second half of his Senior Year Season. The Championship Match, like the others, did not disappoint! Albeit not the result he had hoped for, Ricky brought home a solid 2nd Place for the team.

Your Kings Varsity Wrestlers with heart and class, finished with an 11th place showing in this 26 team event!

Up this week - Varsity travels to Reading for the Charlie Moore Invitational. The Freshman will venture on their own to the Buckeye Freshman Tourney in Centerville.

The JH Wrestlers continue to battle hard each week and even with only filling 11 weight classes continue to be competitive. Trent Benson suffered only his first loss of the season last week and Joe Hulefeld continues to be undefeated.

Next meeting: February 10 at 7 p.m.
