

Daniel Scott Sells

Bio

Having been born and raised in New Mexico, I learned to appreciate the diverse cultures that make up the New Mexico population and the beautiful local surroundings. At a very young age I began working with wood and soon made that my life's passion.

Working as a cabinetmaker for the Albuquerque Public Schools for 26 years, I retired and am now enjoying the time to be more creative with my woodcarving and sand paper art.

