November: The Month to Remember the Saints

The Church starts the month of November celebrating All Saints' Day as a way to remind her children that we are called to holiness as our Heavenly Father is holy. Who are the saints? They are people who walked this life, like us, with difficulties, joy and sadness. They might be someone who failed to love God more than once, but decided to love God more. They might be someone who persecuted Christians like St. Paul who heard the voice of Jesus and turned away from sin. They might be someone who stubbornly refused to believe in God yet turned around and became a great saint like St. Augustine. They might be someone who bravely traveled to India to serve the poorest of the poor in a very difficult life like Mother Teresa.

The saints lived an ordinary life but loved God and his people in an extraordinary way just like Jesus did. They loved with the love of Jesus and learned from Him in prayers and silence. Jesus himself once said to St. Paul, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." 2 Cor. 12:9. God's grace has the power to turn the impossible possible. Let us pray and support each other as we are all journeying to heaven, our permanent home.

Clean Heart Initiative – “Safe Haven Sunday” Parent Workshop

The Diocese of Owensboro is hosting a parent workshop for Safe Haven Sunday. The workshop will take place on Monday, October 30th at the McRaith Catholic Center in Owensboro from 6:00pm-7:30pm.

Safe Haven Sunday is an opportunity to bring to light the issue of pornography, as well as equip marriages and families with the tools they need to restore their homes as safe havens.

Pizza will be provided along with childcare. A recording will be made available for those who cannot attend live. The presentation is by Jennifer Francis Gehring, LCSW – a clinical therapist with New Beginnings.

Learn more and register at:
<https://cleanheartinitiative.org/safe-haven-sunday/>

More information can be found on our bulletin board in the vestibule.

Embrace the Pope’s Missions with “Hearts on Fire, Feet on the Move” this World Mission Sunday!

Today, Pope Francis echoes the universal call of our Baptism-to be Christ’s witnesses to the World. As we gather with global Catholics on this World Mission Sunday, our prayers and contributions to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith bolster the Pope’s missions, enabling:

- Over 844,000 catechists to share the faith
- 258,540 Religious Sisters to tend to families and children
- 28, 140 seminarians to journey towards the priesthood
- Education for 26 million children
- Medical assistance in 12,000 clinics

By supporting this cause, we truly live out the call to be the spark that transforms lives. May your prayers and gifts create ripples of love and transformation. Thank you for your missionary zeal!

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE

Saint Anthony Mary Claret | October 24

Saint Anthony Mary Claret is also known as the “spiritual father of Cuba.” He was born in Salient in Catalonia, Spain, in 1807. He became a weaver, like his father, and was very talented. But he studied in his spare time to become a priest and was ordained in 1835. In 1849 the saint founded the Claretians, a religious institute of missionaries, and a companion order of women religious who served as teachers for girls.

From 1850 to 1857 he served as Archbishop of Santiago de Cuba, Cuba, where he worked diligently to reform both clergy and laity. He opposed concubinage and instructed black slaves, and championed family-owned farms instead of the mass farming of a sugar cash crop. These stances were vehemently opposed by many, and Saint Anthony was the target of assassins. He was recalled to act as Queen Isabella II’s confessor, a duty he reluctantly agreed to, with the exceptions that he would reside away from the court, attending the household only to hear confessions and instruct the children. While in Spain he founded the Religious Publishing House and wrote or published 200 Catholic books and pamphlets. He went into exile to France with the Queen’s household during the Spanish Revolution of 1868.

The saint returned to Rome to Participate in Vatican I where he defended the infallibility of the Pope. He died in France in 1870 and was canonized in 1950 by Pope Pius XII.
